Fourth Sunday of Easter

The fourth Sunday of Easter is also called Good Shepherd Sunday. In each of the three lectionary cycles, our Gospel is taken from the 10th chapter of the Gospel of John. In Cycle B, we hear the middle verses of this chapter. Unless we consider this chapter in the greater context of John's Gospel, we will miss the radical nature of the statement Jesus makes when he declares himself to be the Good Shepherd.

This chapter of John's Gospel follows Jesus' healing of the man born blind and the rejection of this miracle by the Jewish leaders who question Jesus' authority to heal. Jesus responds to this challenge by calling himself the Good Shepherd. He is criticizing the leadership of the Pharisees and the other Jewish leaders. The Pharisees and other Jewish leaders are so angry that they attempt to stone and arrest Jesus (see John 10:31,39). This controversy with the religious leaders continues until Jesus' death.

In the portion of the chapter that we hear proclaimed today, Jesus describes his relationship with his followers as similar to the relationship between a good shepherd and his sheep. As a good shepherd will risk and lay down his life in order to protect his sheep, Jesus willingly sacrifices himself for the sake of his sheep. Jesus contrasts the actions of the good shepherd with the actions of the hired shepherd who abandons the sheep in the face of danger. In the verses following Jesus' teaching, we learn that the Pharisees and the other religious leaders understand that Jesus is referring to them when he describes the hired shepherds.

The concern of a good shepherd for his sheep is part of the shepherd's job. Jesus says, however, that the actions of the good shepherd are based upon the relationship that develops between the shepherd and the sheep. This is at the heart of the difference between the good shepherd and the hired shepherd. The good shepherd knows the sheep and therefore acts out of love. For the Good Shepherd, this is never simply part of a job; this love-in-action is integral to his identity.

As with so much of John's Gospel, one hears in this passage John's particular focus on Christology. As the sheep are known by the Good Shepherd, the Father knows Jesus and Jesus knows the Father. There is an essential unity between the Father and the Son. The freedom with which Jesus acts when he lays down his life is rooted in the unity that he shares with his Father.

In this context, Jesus also refers to others with whom he shares a relationship. By this reference, John probably understands the eventual inclusion of the Gentiles in the Christian community. Our modern ears hear this as a reference to Christian unity. The work of ecumenism is to restore unity among all Christians so that we form one flock under one shepherd, as God desires.

From The Pastor

Baptism and the Easter Season - Through Baptism we share in the risen life of Christ. St. Paul says, "Your life is hidden now in Christ." During the Easter Season we especially reflect on the risen Christ present in our hearts through the Baptism we have received. We renew our commitment to rejoicing in the life of Christ within us and to living by that life.

Baptism and Reception into the Church - Next Sunday, April 29, at the 11:30 am Mass, Susan Scerbo will be received into the Catholic Church, and will be confirmed and receive her First Communion. Her son, Duncan Haines, will be baptized, confirmed and receive his First Communion. They have been preparing for this day for many months through our Tuesday evening Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults classes (R.C.I.A.). We extend to them our prayers, congratulations and our heartfelt welcome to our faith community.

Appreciation Breakfast - This Sunday, April 22, after the 10:00 am Mass we are offering an appreciation breakfast for our parishioners. During this Easter Season we celebrate the presence of the risen Christ in one another. Through baptism we have been blessed with a share in divine life, we gather together at Mass each Sunday to praise Christ and to nurture his presence within us. We invite you to share a simple breakfast with us after Mass to celebrate our oneness in the Lord and express our gratitude for our common life in Christ.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations - On Sunday, April 22, the universal Catholic Church observes the 55th Annual World Day of Prayer for Vocations. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocation to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), and the consecrated life. The purpose of this day is to publicly fulfill the Lord's command to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest." Please pray that those called by the Lord to the priesthood and consecrated life will eagerly respond.

Liturgy Committee - Our next meeting will be on Wednesday, April 25 at 7:00pm in the rectory.

Churches and Cheesesteaks - It is a common practice in Catholic elementary schools for the eighth graders to experience a retreat day as they prepare for their graduation. This day for our eighth graders will take the form of a pilgrimage on Friday, April 27 to local Shrines dedicated to two saints, St. John Neumann and St. Rita. Our students will hear presentations at the Shrines on the lives of these saints and have the opportunity to pray in a holy place. In between the visits to the Shrines we will be stopping at Pat's Steaks for lunch. Please keep our eighth grade students in your prayers as, in preparation for their graduation, they visit these holy places.

Child Abuse Awareness - April is Child Abuse Awareness Month. During this month we especially pray for children who are neglected and abused and we renew our efforts to provide a safe environment for all children.

Helping Other People in Emergency

Twenty-five percent of the Rice Bowl offerings stay within the archdiocese to purchase food for the fifty local food cupboards and soup kitchens. Thank you again and may this beautiful Easter season fill you and your family with Our Lord's blessings.

A Little Humor - Letter from son away at college: Dear Dad, Gue$$ what I need Mo$t. That'$ right. $end it $oon. Be$t Wi$he$, Jay. The reply: Dear Jay, NOthing ever happens here. We kNOw you like school. Write aNOther letter soon. Mom was asking about you at NOon. NOw I have to say good-bye. Dad.

Catholic Teaching: Faith and Baptism - Baptism is the sacrament of faith. But faith needs the community of believers. It is only within the faith of the Church that each of the faithful can believe. The faith required for Baptism is not a perfect and mature faith, but a beginning that is called to develop. The catechumen or the godparent is asked: "What do you ask of God's Church?" The response is: "Faith!" For all the baptized, children or adults, faith must grow after Baptism. For this reason the Church celebrates each year at the Easter Vigil the renewal of baptismal promises. Preparation for Baptism leads only to the threshold of new life. Baptism is the source of that new life in Christ from which the entire Christian life springs forth. (from the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Spiritual Thought - A simple act of pure love pleases me more than a thousand imperfect prayers. (words spoken by the Lord in a revelation to Sr. Faustina) area children living with CF. Volunteers are needed. Without the help of volunteers, the Narberth CF Run would not be the success that it is. Volunteering mainly involves traffic control, which is extremely important to help keep our runners safe by making sure that no vehicles are moving on the streets. The Run kicks off at 9:00 am and ends about 10am and volunteers are asked to be at their designated assigned stations at 8:30am. Students grade 3 and up are needed as volunteers for water stations; adults MUST accompany any children younger than this. Volunteering is fun and easy, plus you can enjoy the post-run activities at the Narberth Playground, including the Kidz run, face painting and moon bouncing. Volunteers will also receive a t-shirt for their support. Anyone interested in being a volunteer can contact us at narberthcfrun@gmail.com or visitnarberthrun.com or you can stop by the volunteer table at pre-registration, Friday, April 27th, between 5-7 pm in the Narberth Girl Scout Room, next to the Narberth Library, or on race day at the Playground before 8:30am. ## Saint Margaret School

Congratulations to our SMS Elementary Reading Olympics Teams!!

Their competition was last week. They read 42 books and competed against a slew of Lower Merion Teams. They made SMS Proud with their knowledge, effort and sportsmanship - way to go Kids!

Chapter Champs: Marena Robinson & Matt Norton - Captains. Josh Cloud, Francis Passarella, Alexander Moritz, Hailey Dunham, Lily Kennedy, Megan Donahoe and Henry Karn.

Classroom News:

Grade 1: The students read about treasures. As they have learned, treasures can be all kinds of things but, more importantly, a treasure can be a very special person. First graders decided it would be fun to write letters to their "treasures" and now their treasures are writing back to them at school. The students are so excited getting mail delivered to them at school.

Kindergarten

Math - The students concluded their chapter, Classify Objects. The children did a great job sorting objects by their shape, size, and various other attributes. Students will now focus on the concepts of above, below, in front of and behind.

Science - We started our Unit on Motion. This week, they talked about speed and direction of motion. They also explored what causes objects to move fast or slow.

Merion Mercy Academy, an independent, all girls Catholic High School Sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy, has an opening for a full time teaching position in the English department for the 2018-2019 school year. Qualified applicants with an English degree and secondary certification are asked to submit a cover letter and resume by Monday, April 30th. Experienced preferred. Send email to Mary Ann Danovich, Assistant Head of School for Academic Affairs, madanovich@merion-mercy.com.

Cub Pack 212 - Many boys in our parish are active in our local Cub Scout Pack and Boy Scout Troop. After all Masses next weekend, boys from Narberth Cub Pack 212 will be selling discount cards as a fundraiser. We call them "Camp Cards" because they help the boys fund their camping activities, but you will find that the $5 card is a good investment. The card includes discounts such as Acme, Legoland, Applebee's etc. Please stop to talk with a scout after Masses on April 28-29, and help support their programs.

TAX TIME - Make tax time less painful by making a donation to our St. Margaret School through PA State Tax Credits available through BLOCS or The Foundation for Catholic Education. The Special Purpose Entities are successful ways of making a donation to Catholic education right here to assist parish members or families with need who attend our school through scholarships in financial assistance. Interested parish & school families can become a member of an LLC by making a two year commitment of $7,000 or more providing a 90% tax credit. The credits are distributed on a K-1 according to the members percentage of interest in the LLC. Tax Credits are applied to your PA Tax Liability by your accountant. The Foundation for Catholic Education accepts applications for support at $1000 or more, with application process beginning in the early part of the fiscal year. BLOCS has funding available now through an open SPE. If you have a desire to receive tax credits now, contact info@smsnarberth.org to talk about your donation to our great school. This year, we received over $25,000 in tax credits this way, and your support will be valuable to our families as well.

Facebook LIVE ( April 24, 8 - 8:30pm) with Father Sean Bransfield and the St. Raymond Nonnatus Foundation to discuss the annulment process. Fr.
