Fourth Sunday of Advent

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

In 1930, Arnold Munk sat down to write the children's story entitled "The Little Engine That Could" under the whimsical pen name "Watty Piper." It was an instant success and has largely remained so. As recently as 2013, it was named by teachers as one of the top 100 books for children. As the title indicates, it is a story used to teach children the values of optimism, hard work, and the fact that small size is not an obstacle to the doing of great things.

On this "Eve of the Eve" Sunday, if you will, we are treated to hearing the prophet Micah's plea to the little town of Bethlehem. Like the little engine that was able to climb that hill with its load of cars because of its trust and acquired self-esteem, so by the plan and grace of God tiny Bethlehem learns of its eternal greatness from a certain holy birth that took place there. Immediately, the little town went from "the least among the clans of Judah" to the greatest. The rulers of Israel "will come forth from her."

The insignificance of Bethlehem as His birthplace was a strong indication that the world was about to roll a different way. The children's story of the determined little engine contains a similar child-size dose of hope and optimism.

The significance of little Bethlehem, paired with the humility of the two mothers-to-be, is also an invitation to ponder a question or two. For example, have you ever felt small, perhaps hopelessly so? That feeling can come quickly when we pause to look up at the December sky with its canopy of stars. When the people of science tell us that those lights we see have come from unimaginable distances, it is all we can do but wonder about our place in all this vastness. We seem so small.

So then, do we ever have the right to be puffed up with self-importance? Not if we admit we are small and have the need of a Redeemer! In that case, we can believe in our importance, because no star can offer God's love and tell Him about it. Our humble submission presents the opportunity for God to do great things for us, not dissimilar to what He did for Elizabeth and Mary.

Returning to our opening image, what explains the appeal of the story of a small steam engine that agrees to pull a long train up a hill after larger engines refuse to help? One answer is provided by three different children's authors. They wrote: "Each of us has reserves of strength, imagination, and intelligence. If we concentrate and focus our attention, we can tap those reservoirs and meet challenges that might otherwise have seemed overwhelming."

I would only add that those reserves come from a loving Creator who never thinks of us as small. Therein lies the root of the optimism Christmas brings. May your Christmas be blest because of it.

THE STEWARDSHIP REPORT

The Stewardship Report will be in the bulletin for December 30.

NEW ONLINE GIVING - Saint Margaret Parish has arranged a new, secure method of online giving. You can now setup all your second collections in advance. Create or login to your Parish Giving account by going to the Parish website and clicking on the logo at the lower right or https://tinyurl.com/StMargGiving.

Spiritual Thought - Do not look forward to what may happen tomorrow. The same Everlasting Father, who takes care of you today, will take care of you tomorrow.
He will either shield you from suffering, or give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace then, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations. (St.
Francis de Sales)

FROM THE PASTOR

Volunteer Appreciation Dinner - On Saturday, January 26, 2019, we are hosting a dinner for all of our Parish volunteers. The Dinner will be after the 5:15 pm Mass that evening. Father Dennis Gill, the Director of the Archdiocesan Office for Worship and the Rector of the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul, will offer a reflection at the Meal on the value of the Mass as the driving force for all our charitable acts. This will be good occasion to thank our volunteers, come together as a Parish Family, and learn more about the Eucharist. See the information on the next page on how to RSVP for the dinner.

Christmas: A Visit from God - One important way of showing our love for others is by visiting them. Our desire to be with another and making the effort required to visit the person is a true sign of love. A sure sign of God's love for us is that he desired to be with us, to visit us, and to take on our humanity so that he could be present to us. This is why we rejoice so wholeheartedly at Christmas. We celebrate that God loves and values us so much that he wants to be with us. But a visit only reaches its full beauty when the visitor is warmly welcomed and received with respect and love. May this Christmas be a time of increased faith in the love of the Lord who comes to visit, and be marked by a strong desire to welcome him into our hearts and homes so that we can fully enjoy the salvation, light and goodness he brings.

Participating in Mass is the best way of enjoying God's visit and allowing him to share with us his strength and peace. Our Mass schedule on Christmas is: Christmas Eve - 4:00, 6:00 and 8:00 pm in the Church, and 4:00 pm in the Annex; Christmas Day - 7:30, 10:00 and 11:30 am in the Church.

New Year - New Year's Day, January 1, has several aspects. It is the Octave (Eighth Day) of the Nativity of Our Lord, the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God, the World Day of Prayer for Peace, and the beginning of a new calendar year. January 1 is a Holyday of Obligation. We will use the Sunday schedule. Masses will be offered at 5:15 pm on Monday, December 31 and at 7:30, 10:00 and 11:30 am on Tuesday, January 1. January 1 completes the special eight day period of solemn and joyful celebration of the Birth of Our Savior, honors Mary who accepted the important role of bringing Christ into the world as his mother, and as the beginning of a new year, is a special time to pray for peace and to turn to the Lord in prayer to give him thanks for the gift of last year and to ask for his blessing on the year ahead. Join us at Holy Mass to begin the New Year prayerfully before God.

Holy Hour for Vocations - On Sunday, January 6 from 2:00 - 3:00 pm, St. Margaret Church will host the Deanery 6 holy hour for vocations to the priesthood. This Deanery is comprised of the Catholic Churches in our area. Every Deanery in the Archdiocese will be celebrating a Holy Hour to pray that the Lord will raise up men to accept the call to the priesthood and serve the needs of the people of God in our Archdiocese. Your presence and prayers at the Holy Hour will be a source of inspiration and a powerful way of helping to provide priests for the Catholic Church in our Archdiocese.

Knights of Columbus - The Knights of Columbus, an organization for Catholic men and their families, are seeking to begin a Chapter here at St. Margaret Parish. A representative from the Knights will be speaking at all the Masses on the weekend of January 5-6. He will be asking our men to prayerfully consider becoming a Knight. This organization performs charitable works and is a source of mutual support in learning and living the faith for Catholic men. There will an information night regarding the Knights of Columbus at 7:00 pm on Tuesday, January 8 in the Antioch Annex.

HELPING OTHER PEOPLE IN EMERGENCY

Please call as early in the week as possible.

A Little Humor - "It doesn't make sense," says comedian Elayne Boosler. "You're flying at 500 m.p.h., 30,000 feet in the air, and the pilot tells you to feel free to roam around the plane. But when you're on the ground taxiing to the gate at one m.p.h., he tells you to remain seated for your own safety."

CHRISTMAS CONCERT: This past Friday our parish Schola Choir held its annual Christmas Concert in the church. A huge thank you to Mike Worth, Sarah Worth, Beth Mirzai and to their incredible choir for an incredible performance after 6 months of practice!!

Thank You St. Veronica Parish and Saint John Hospice thanks all the parishioners in St. Margaret Parish who contribute to the poor box. The $800 they received from the parish will help them continue their work for the poor and the homeless.

THANK YOU!

Additionally, as a percentage of our sale, CRS will receive $148.80 from the vendors from which we purchase the crafts plus $100.00 from donations from parishioners, etc. We also wish to thank our special helpers: Joanne Kratz, CRS Ethical Trade Ambassador, Brian McCormick and American Family Market for their donation of plastic bags. If you are unable to donate blood but want to donate towards this drive, please contact Tina Braun to volunteer.

Catholic Teaching: The Incarnation of the Son of God - Belief in the true Incarnation of the Son of God is the distinctive sign of Christian faith: By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit which confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God.” Such is the joyous conviction of the Church from the beginning whenever she sings the “mystery of our religion”: He was manifested in the flesh. The unique and altogether singular event of the Incarnation of the Son of God does not mean that Jesus Christ is part man and part God, nor does it imply that he is the result of a confused mixture of the divine and the human. He became truly man while remaining truly God. Jesus Christ is true God and true man. During the first centuries, the Church had to defend and clarify this truth of faith against the heresies that falsified it.

Volunteer Thank You Dinner

In gratitude for all service to St. Margaret Parish, it is our honor to cordially invite all parish volunteers and a guest to our Volunteer Appreciation Dinner at St. Margaret Parish. We thank them for their devoted time and effort in making St. Margaret Parish a wonderful place to experience the love of Christ and our community.

The Knights of Columbus will be hosting an open house on Tuesday, January 8th in the Antioch Annex at 7:00 PM. Refreshments will be served. All members of the parish are invited to attend this event. Come out, greet old friends and make new ones. The Knights of Columbus is a Catholic, Family, Fraternity, and Service organization of 1.9 million members built on the principles of Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism. Its main purpose is to strengthen parish life, support its members and the church and provide an organization where families can come together to share their beliefs and socialize. Msgr. Dougherty asks that all eligible men consider becoming a member of the Knights, an organization described by the Vatican as “the strong right arm of the Church.” In the interim feel free visit the Knights of Columbus website at www.kofc.org
