TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

“When you’re up to your waist in alligators, it’s hard to remember that your original objective was to drain the swamp.” I remember the first time I came across that expression (which I just purged of any vulgarity). I was struck by the humor of it as well as the truth. How we inventive humans can make light of a serious truth! How at the first sight of danger or threat we can change our minds. I don’t know of any similar expression that captures as well the situation of being so rich that we don’t even notice the poor.

That is precisely the point that the Holy Spirit wants to make in the complementary readings from Amos and Luke that we hear this weekend. The precise evil here is not that the wealthy Israelites and the unnamed rich man seem to have it all. It is that both do not even notice people among them who have nothing. At least in the material sense.

We learn that “not noticing” is a sin because in Our Lord’s mind that’s enough to keep one barred from heaven. In classical literature we have Charles Dickens telling us that his Scrooge had this same problem until the three spirits of Christmas shook him out of it just in time. Just as that story is perennial, so is the problem for us in today’s world.

A wag has written that “most of us have two chances of becoming wealthy—slim and none.” Seriously, it is not wealth, but the arrogance of wealth that offends the poor. Do we really want to go through life offending them? After all, Jesus highly respected the poor. In fact, He chose to live and die poor. So let’s assume that we avoid arrogance for that reason alone.

Yet, taking an honest inventory of our lives, we all have a roof over our heads, suitable meals each day, and enough money in our checkbooks to pay our bills. Moreover, the proliferation of those storage shed businesses everywhere you look testifies that many of us have too much “stuff” to stuff into our overstuffed housing. That alone makes us vulnerable to this “disease” of not noticing the “have nots” among us. It seems like we need a storm surge flooding our abodes or a fallen tree crashing into our roof or crushing our car to make us snap out of our often twisted set of priorities.

Watching the evening news on TV or reading about it online is all we need these days to get depressed. And an overly large segment of our entertainment devices keep pounding away, often without much subtlety, the message that amassing this world’s goods is the only way to live. That’s why we need to reinforce our spiritual lives at least with Sunday Mass and the sacraments, especially Reconciliation, and frequent reading and praying with Scripture.

And if God seems lost in the mix, or at least in your life at any time, I suggest there is rich spiritual advice in the old railroad crossing signs that were invented for our safety. Remember the words? They were “Stop, Look and Listen.” Remember them, friends. And do what they say.

Parish Theme for 2019 - 2020 The Family: a Communion of Life and Love

From the Pastor

Canonical Visitation – One of the Bishops or a representative from the Archdiocesan administration generally make an official canonical visitation to parishes every five years. I recently received notice that Monsignor Daniel Kutys, the vicar general for the Archdiocese, will be conducting the visit to our Parish on Saturday, October 5. He will meet with the pastor and members of the Parish staff, with members of the Parish Pastoral and Finance Councils, and celebrate the 5:15 pm Mass on that day.

Admission to Candidacy for the Diaconate – On this Wednesday, October 2, Christopher DeMaio, a parishioner here at St. Margaret's, will be received as an official candidate for the Diaconate at a ceremony at St. Charles Seminary. Chris is in the Diaconate Program at the Seminary and has begun a seven year program of formation for ordination as a deacon. There are three degrees of Holy Orders: deacon, priest, and bishop. We are grateful that Chris has discerned a call to the Diaconate and we offer him our prayers and support in his time of formation. Deacons assist the priests and bishops in the pastoral care of the people of God. Deacons can baptize, proclaim the Gospel at Mass and preach, distribute Holy Communion, officiate at weddings, and conduct funeral services. Deacons are ministers of the Word and Eucharist and give particular witness to the charitable endeavors of the Church by helping to oversee service and care for all, especially the needy. The Order of permanent deacons was present in the early Church and was restored by Vatican Council II in the 1960's. Congratulations to Chris and to his wife, Lauren, and their five children, Alexandra, Christopher, Olivia, Ariana, and Joseph.

ReBoot – The big event is coming soon. Chris Stefanick, a nationally known Catholic speaker, will be at Archbishop Carroll High School on Thursday, October 10, 2019, from 7:00 – 9:30 pm. St. Margaret Parish is the host for this Event. Our Adult Faith Formation Committee secured Chris Stefanick and Archbishop Carroll was obtained as the venue to accommodate a larger crowd. People from many parishes are being invited, but we would like a large contingent from St. Margaret's. The Event is appropriate for anyone from sixth grade and beyond. We would especially like to see our adults, and in particular our School and PREP parents, take advantage of this great opportunity to learn more about our faith and receive practical advice on how to sustain it and grow in it in the midst of the many challenges of life. We want this Event to be a catalyst for helping all of us at St. Margaret's to live our faith more fully through worshipping the Lord and putting our faith into practice. Tickets are $25, and can be obtained at the rectory or online at RealLifeCatholic.com. A gracious donor has provided some tickets for those who find it difficult to pay for the tickets themselves. If you would like the tickets, contact Msgr. Dougherty.

Prayer to St. Michael – The Prayer to St. Michael is a traditional prayer of the Church requesting the intercession of this holy Archangel in our battle to overcome temptation and evil. I encourage you to offer this prayer as a means to conquering the attacks of the devil and evil spirits that plague our world, Church and our lives. This prayer helps to make us more alert to the temptations we face and to draw on the power of God to help us in our battle against evil and for the triumph of good. Here is the prayer: Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. (Pope Leo XIII (1810-1903))

Blessing of Animals – St. Francis of Assisi (1881 – 1226) was known for his love of nature and animals. Every year near his feast day, October 4, we offer a blessing of the animals. The blessing will take place on Saturday, October 5, at 1PM in front of the rectory. We bless God's creatures as prayer of thanks for the gifts they are to us.

Spiritual Thought – Do not grieve over the temptations you suffer. When the Lord intends to bestow a particular virtue on us, He often permits us first to be tempted by the opposite vice. Therefore, look upon every temptation as an invitation to grow in a particular virtue and a promise by God that you will be successful, if only you stand fast. (St. Philip Neri)

Are you a high school student (9th - 12th grade) looking to share in fellowship, faith, and fun? St. Margaret's Youth Group will be having our first gathering on Sunday, October 6th, after the 10 am Mass. Join us in the Antioch Annex for pastries, board games, and introductions. We will plan to meet for one hour.

A Little Humor – Young boy to his parents on his way to his room where he was sent by them for misbehaving: "You're not going to look good in the 'How I Spent My Summer Vacation' essay."

Archdiocese of Philadelphia School of Distinguished Instruction 2019

September 13, 2019 - St. Margaret School was acknowledged for Distinguished Instruction in academic growth as determined by an analysis of the Normal Curve Equivalent scores of two consecutive years on school wide standardized testing. Congratulations Mrs. Johnston, Faculty and Staff!

Church Teaching: Diaconate – A third degree of the hierarchy of the Sacrament of Holy Orders, after bishop and priest. The deacon is ordained not to priesthood but for ministry and service. Deacons are ordained to assist the bishop and priests in the celebration of the divine mysteries, above all the Eucharist, in the distribution of Holy Communion, in assisting at and blessing marriages, in the proclamation of the Gospel and preaching, in presiding over funerals, and in dedicating themselves to the various ministries of charity. While the Churches of the East have always had a functioning order of deacons, in the West the permanent diaconate was reestablished by the Second Vatican Council.
