THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

We know nothing of the famous Zaccheus other than what St. Luke tells us. We do know he held the worst job in town. He made his money working for the hated Romans as one of their tax collectors. We can be sure that he was ostracized by the Jewish townspeople. He was likely often alone at night when others might be dining out, or otherwise socializing. Today we might call him "marginalized." That would be enough right there to have him show up on Our Lord's "radar."

So Jesus does spot Zaccheus, half hiding up there in that sycamore tree just waiting for a glance of the Man of wonder that he might not otherwise have the chance to see, much less meet. But is he ever in for the surprise of his life! For the Lord looks up, likely with a kind smile on His face, and with a wave of His strong arm, urges Zaccheus to come on down. Not only that, He tells the poor rich man that He'd like to dine that evening at his home! Was there a word equivalent to "Wow" that Zaccheus said? We can only guess.

Obviously we have no video of this scene, but you have to imagine the looks of shock on the faces of the townspeople gathered around who heard the rabbi, the one they call "Master," just say that He is going to "that one's" house to eat? Unbelievable!!" Of course, that's precisely Jesus' point. God can be unbelievable at times with His decisions. Here Jesus, the "sign of contradiction" chooses to reach out to this social leper who had climbed up so that Jesus could reach out. Come to think of it, that is precisely what Jesus is always doing to us: reaching out. He came among us to end this separation from our best self, the one attuned to God.

Alienation from God takes many forms. Not always dramatic, much less the stuff of novels. Sometimes it is so subtle that we miss it. Or we catch what's happening but refuse to admit there is a problem. For example, take the use of coarse language. It is disrespectful of the person(s) who hear it. That is to say also that it is irreverent of a part of God's creation. It may even give scandal to "little ones," by that I mean children. Such speech can also be a thinly veiled form of violence. And certainly it would make us most uncomfortable in the presence of Jesus. The same holds true for racial slurs. Or deliberately ignoring the speed limit on the road. Having little tolerance for another's unintentional mistake. A little too much to drink too often. Little lies now and then. None of these are earth-shaking, but each tears down the ideals set for us at Baptism, and the promises we made at our Confirmation.

We don't know whether or not Zaccheus bragged about his visitor and that wonderful supper he enjoyed with Him. But boasting is one of those forms of pride that not only violates humility but also can backfire on us. A newly promoted Army colonel moved into his new and impressive office. As he sat behind his new big desk, a private knocked at his door. "Just a minute," the colonel said, "I'm on the phone." He picked up the phone and said loudly, "Yes sir, General, I'll call the President this afternoon. No sir, I won't forget." Then he hung up the phone and told the private to come in. "What can I help you with?" the colonel asked. "Well, sir," the private replied, "I've come to hook up your phone."

The Family: a Communion of Life and Love

From the Pastor

Forty Hours Eucharistic Devotions – Our Annual Forty Hours Devotions will be celebrated on Sunday, November 17, Monday, November 18 and Tuesday, November 19. Deacon John Lozano will be our preacher. He will help us to relate the Eucharist to our experience of daily family life. Deacon Lozano will speak at all the Masses on Sunday, November 17, and at Evening Prayer and Benediction at 7:00 pm on all three days. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for adoration on the altar each day from after morning Mass until the Devotions at 7:00 pm. Come and join us for these sacred devotions. Plan to spend time in quiet adoration during the days of the Devotions. A sign-up list will be in the vestibule so that we can be sure to have at least two people present at the various times for adoration.

Reboot Revisited: Prayer – The second practice recommended by Chris Stefanick to help nurture our faith was prayer. Prayer has many forms. The most powerful prayer is the celebration of Mass. At Mass we join with Christ in offering ourselves through him and in the Spirit to the Father. This sacred offering opens the gates of heavenly grace and the saving power of God flows upon us and our world. This grace is especially made present for us through the reception of Holy Communion, the Body and Blood of Christ. It is in Christ that we grow in holiness and goodness and through him we bring the light and love of the Lord to our world. Prayer keeps us in a lively and personal relationship with Christ, and the best means of nurturing that life-giving relationship is through the celebration of Sunday Mass.

Confirmation – Bishop Michael Fitzgerald will preside at the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation here at St. Margaret's on Tuesday, November 5 at 4:00 pm. Fifty-eight of our young people will be receiving the Sacrament. We join together in praying that they will experience the power of the Holy Spirit and live by the wisdom, courage and devotion the Spirit will pour into their hearts.

FORMED, an internet site containing many and multifaceted resources for growing in the knowledge and prayerful practice of our Catholic faith. The site contains movies, documentaries, talks, books and other resources on our faith for people of all ages. As a member of our parish, you have free access. Go to FORMED.org. The Parish Code is : WRVZND. I invite you to make good use of this wonderful and easily accessible resource.

Church Teaching: The Call to Prayer – Man may forget his Creator or hide far from his face; he may run after idols or accuse the deity of having abandoned him; yet the living and true God tirelessly calls each person to that mysterious encounter known as prayer. In prayer, the faithful God's initiative of love always comes first; our own first step is always a response. As God gradually reveals himself and reveals man to himself, prayer appears as a reciprocal call, a covenant drama. Through words and actions, this drama engages the heart. It unfolds throughout the whole history of salvation. (from the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Spiritual Thought – We know certainly that our God calls us to a holy life. We know that He gives us every grace, every abundant grace; and though we are so weak of ourselves, this grace is able to carry us through every obstacle and difficulty. (St. Elizabeth Ann Seton)

Classroom News

Mrs. Rooney and grade KA are working hard and they have accomplished so much in the past two months. In Religion, the students have been taught about the church year and the different ways they celebrate God’s love throughout the year. In Math, they continue practicing counting, reading and writing numbers through 20. They are focusing on counting groups of 11 and 12. In Science/Social studies, they are learning about the parts of a plant - flower, stem, leaves and roots. They were excited to draw and label out the Pennsylvania state flower, the Mountain Laurel.
