FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

The pressure is on to deliver. No, I'm not thinking of the Post Office, or Fed-Ex or Amazon. In these waning days of Advent 2019, what I refer to is the pressure you or I just might be feeling about any personal promises we made this pre-Christmas season to God, or family and friends with an eye to making this Christmas even more special.

Concerning God, your Advent resolution hopefully included some extra time spent in prayer. Or maybe a long-delayed confession. As to family, a renewed effort to "make it work" with some challenging member, a project that began at Thanksgiving dinner. Your kinder thoughts of him/her now translated into a Christmas card or a phone call, or gladly joining them around the family Christmas tree. As for friends, especially those geographically distant, you made some time together via Skype or texting if not a visit.

As we read St. Matthew's Christmas account today, we might note some differences in it from St. Luke's version. They are often combined in the popular versions. Chief among them is the prominent role St. Matthew gives to St. Joseph, which Luke does not. This Matthew did for the comfort of his primarily Jewish audience. Joseph is the link with the House of David, a long-held qualification of their expected Messiah.

This happenstance gives us the perfect time to focus on St. Joseph. He is almost a forgotten saint, despite the fact that he is the foster father of Christ; the Patron of the Universal Church, and a perfect model of true masculinity. What we note also is his outstanding integrity; constant patience; and inspirational obedience. All three characteristics, far from a complete list, will be a working document for all of us to live our Catholic faith in a better way from December 25 into the fast approaching 2020. In vision rating that number is perfection at the eye doctor's office.

I admit that notion puts some inherent pressure on us all. But like cardio exercise that is good for the heart, so truly living our faith every day is good for the soul. And I'd like to add that St. Joseph models skills that fit in with a modern context. What is "time management" other than priority adherence and obedience to a command for prayer? What is "goal setting" other than healthy obedience to a higher power? Carefully read between the lines of St. Joseph's story. Note that it has no memorable speech but action aplenty. When St. Joseph's virtues become part of our own biographies, they bring us the elusive joy of peace.

I close with the thought of the late Menachem Begin, former Prime Minister of Israel: "Peace is the beauty of life. It is sunshine. It is the smile of a child, the love of a mother, the joy of a father, the togetherness of a family. It is the advancement of man, the victory of a just cause, the triumph of truth." A blessed Christmas to you and yours.

From the Pastor

O Come, Let Us Adore Him – Our celebration of the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ, is near. The external circumstances of the birth were very humble, a stable in the little city of Bethlehem. The simplicity of the material surroundings at the birth of Christ remind us that the deepest meaning of this event is beyond the material; it is spiritual. All of the externals involved in our celebration of Christmas are meant to bless our spirits with a renewed love in the depths of our hearts for Jesus Christ. As we approach the celebration of this great Feast, we prepare our hearts. We contemplate the central role that Jesus has in our lives. He is our Redeemer and our Lord. O come, let us adore him. May our hearts bow humbly before him as we place our trust and hope in him and renew our commitment to walking in his ways.

New Sound System – Over the past couple of years several people have commented that they thought our sound system could be better. After discussing this at Pastoral and Finance Council Meetings in recent years and considering various proposals, I opted to go forward with the purchase of a new sound system. The system has now been installed. It is a noticeable improvement. The Scriptures tell us that “faith comes by hearing,” so it is important that we have a system that allows everyone to easily hear and understand the Scriptures proclaimed at Mass, as well as all the prayers and music. I am grateful to Mike Worth, our Director of Music, for all his assistance in overseeing the process of having the new system installed. The new system should serve us well for many years to come. The cost was $35,000. Your generosity over the years has enabled the Parish to put some money away in a capital fund which was utilized for this purchase.

Spiritual Thought – (a journal entry of Angelo Roncalli, the future Pope John XXIII, written on Christmas Eve in 1902 when he was seminarian) Jesus, I am here waiting for your coming.... Come into my heart, I am a poor man but I will warm you as well as I can. At least be pleased that I wish to welcome you warmly, to love you dearly and sacrifice myself for you.

But in your own way you are rich and you see my needs. You are a flame of charity and you will purge my heart of all that is not your own most holy Heart. You are uncreated holiness and you will fill me with those graces which give new life to my soul. O Jesus, come, I have so much to tell you, so many sorrows to confide, so many desires, so many promises, so many hopes.

I want to adore you, to kiss you on the brow, O tiny Jesus, to give myself to you once more, for ever. Come, my Jesus, delay no longer, come, be my guest.

A Little Humor – Paddy O’Casey was on his deathbed when his wife, Colleen, tiptoed into the room and asked him if he had any last requests. “Actually, my dear, there is one thing I really would like before I go off to that great shamrock patch in the sky,” Paddy whispered. “A piece of that wonderful chocolate cake of yours.” “Oh, but you can’t have that,” his wife exclaimed. “I’m saving it for the wake.”

Church Teaching: The Christmas Mystery – Jesus was born in a humble stable, into a poor family. Simple shepherds were the first witnesses to this event. In this poverty heaven’s glory was made manifest. The Church never tires of singing the glory of this night:

The Virgin today brings into the world the Eternal
And the earth offers a cave to the Inaccessible
The angels and shepherds praise him
And the magi advance with the star,
For you are born for us,
Little Child, God eternal!

To become a child in relation to God is the condition for entering the kingdom. For this, we must humble ourselves and become little. Even more: to become children of God we must be born from above or born of God. Only when Christ is formed in us will the mystery of Christmas be fulfilled in us. Christmas is the mystery of this marvelous exchange: O marvelous exchange! Man’s Creator has become man, born of the Virgin. We have been made sharers in the divinity of Christ who humbles himself to share our humanity. (from the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

to gather together for this invigorating 1-day event: February 1, 2020 at Pope John Paul II High School in Royersford, PA. Come spend the day with us as we remember our feminine genius, understand common spiritual obstacles we encounter as women and how to overcome them, gain tools to stand and stay in the Father's blessing (for ourselves and our families), and talk about our Blessed Mother's role in protecting and strengthening us. Conference team: Father Stephen DeLacy, De Yarrison of You Are Made New Ministry, Jenn Lozano of Unbound, and Megan Murphy of Megan Murphy Ministries. Learn more and register: www.YouAreMadeNew.com/chosen-conference or contact De Yarrison at 610-287-2989.

Inspirational Prayer

Jesus Healer of Wounds and Source of Mercy, your hands embraced and welcome little children. As we look on your hands painfully nailed to the cross, extend your Divine Mercy to the tens of millions of women and men in our nation who are wounded from their participation in abortions. Help us as a Church to recognize the unique pain that abortion brings to individuals, families and our society. May the wounds of your hands on the Cross remind us each day of your steadfast love for us as we seek to build a culture of life and be faithful instruments of your hope and healing.
