FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Here at the start of Lent, our one great penitential season, the Church presents us with the Bible's "take" on temptation. We find that our original parents were easy targets for what Scripture calls that "most cunning of all the animals the Lord had made." What that lowdown snake in the grass proposed to Adam and Eve was the possibility of being God. We are not exempt from the same temptation even if we may only admit it to our best friend or confessor. It's the desire once and for all to be in charge. To decide what is and what will be.

Bearing in mind that Adam and Eve never called on God for help, the proposition wound up being too much for Adam and Eve. So they gave in and ate that famous fruit of the one forbidden tree in the center of the garden. What they lost was incalculable. Gone were unbridled wisdom and total innocence. What they gained was shame and a run to make loincloths and note the lock on Heaven's gates.

That was the situation until the long-planned and righteous reversal of things began on one holy night in the little town of Bethlehem. The Babe born then and there would later be called the "second Adam" by the man we call "St. Paul."

Whatever temptations haunt our days all boil down to a defect in our wills and a fragile love for God. Except for Mary our Mother and the saints, our hearts are divided. We just do not want to risk losing whatever of wealth, power, fame, that we have, or think we have. Jesus was perfect love for God His Father, so that none of those three entities had any attraction for Him. Nothing would ever get in the way of His love for His Father.

Two action plans I would suggest for this Lent. First, sit still long enough to identify your particular temptations. Jot them down in a personal Lenten notebook. Then plot your "battle plan." Best for this are the traditional practices of Lent - prayer, fasting and alms giving. Like a plan to lose weight, such a program requires discipline and exercise. The latter does not mean a gym workout but a more frequent walk up the parish church aisle to feed on Christ's Body and Blood in the Eucharist.

Allow me to close with a somewhat humorous Lenten caution. It is important to recognize that temptations are certain to ring your doorbell; but it's your own fault if you ask them in to stay for dinner. Take care to enjoy your new week and don't be a stranger in the pews.

From the Pastor

Lent: a Penitential Season – Lent is a time we focus particularly on turning away from our sins and back to the Lord. Prayer, fasting and almsgiving are the means by which we repent of our sins and renew our commitment to Jesus Christ. Fasting, or any act of sacrificial penance, is a means by which we call to mind our sins, make an act of sacrificial love to the Lord, and discipline our wills to choose the way of God. The discipline of Lent helps to make us better disciples, more willing and able to give ourselves to Christ and to choose his will in our lives and daily decisions. May our acts of discipline this Lent be done out of love for the Lord and help us to love and serve him more fully.

Little Black Books – The little black books are available for your use during Lent. The books contain a daily reflection that can help you to experience better the meaning and value of Lent and strengthen your relationship with the Lord. The books are available at the doors of Church. Please take and read. Just a few minutes each day can make a dramatic difference in our spiritual lives.

Tuesday Evening Confessions – This Tuesday, and every Tuesday during Lent, confession will be available from 8:00 – 9:00 pm. Lent is a good time to receive God’s forgiveness and open our hearts to the healing power of his love.

Stations of the Cross – During Lent we meditate on the suffering the Lord endured for our sins. The Stations of the Cross is a powerful devotion that helps us to enter into deep sorrow for our sins and to appreciate the depth of Christ’s love for us as we contemplate all that he suffered on our behalf. Stations are held on Friday evenings at 7:00 pm in the Church.

Speaker for Catholic Relief Services Next Weekend – In conjunction with Operation Rice Bowl, a Catholic Relief Services Sponsored Lenten Activity, Deacon Joseph Petrauskas, a permanent deacon from the Diocese of Allentown, will be speaking at all the Masses next weekend. Deacon Petrauskas is a Global Fellow for Catholic Relief Services who speaks in parishes about the good being done by Catholic Relief Services for the needy throughout the world.

Adult Faith Formation – Dr. Antoine Raymundo will be at our parish on Wednesday, March 11 at 7:00 pm in the Annex to speak on Fatherhood, Marriage and Pro-Life issues. Come and join us for this Lenten opportunity to deepen the knowledge of our faith and grow in God’s wisdom and grace.

Church Teaching: Conversion – The human heart is heavy and hardened. God must give man a new heart. Conversion is first of all a work of the grace of God who makes our hearts return to him: “Restore us to thyself, O Lord, that we may be restored!” God gives us the strength to begin anew. It is in discovering the greatness of God’s love that our heart is shaken by the horror and weight of sin and begins to fear offending God by sin and being separated from him. The human heart is converted by looking upon him whom our sins have pierced. (from the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Spiritual Thought – In these days, let us add something beyond the usual measure of our service, such as private prayers and abstinence in food and drink. Let each of us, over and above the measure prescribed, offer something of our free will in the joy of the Holy Spirit. (Rule of St. Benedict – regarding Lent)

A Little Humor – A teenage girl received a note from her boyfriend that said: I would swim the mighty ocean for one look into your eyes. I would walk through a wall of flames for a touch of your hands. I would leap over the deepest chasm to hear one kind word from your lips. He signed it: Love, Ted. P.S. I’ll be over Sunday night, if it doesn’t rain.

FAST AND ABSTINENCE AND OTHER ACTS OF PENANCE FOR LENT

The Bishops of the United States prescribe, as minimal obligation, that all persons who are fourteen years of age and older are bound to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday, February 26, 2020, on all the Fridays of Lent and Good Friday. Further, all persons eighteen years of age and older, up to and including their fifty-ninth birthday, are bound to fast by limiting themselves to a single full meal on Ash Wednesday and on Good Friday, while the other two meals on those days are to be light.

All the faithful are encouraged, when possible, to participate at Mass and to receive the Holy Eucharist daily, to celebrate frequently the Sacrament of Penance, to undertake spiritual reading, especially the study of the Sacred Scriptures, and to participate in parish Lenten devotions as well as Lenten education programs. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is especially recommended.

All are encouraged to participate in Operation Rice Bowl which has aided countless hungry persons here in the Archdiocese as well as throughout our nation and our world.

Please remember in your prayers the soul of Gerard Keaveney who recently passed away. May he rest in peace and his loved ones be comforted.

St. Margaret School, is having on-going registration for children grades Pre-Kindergarten (must be 4 years on or before September 1st). Walk in Wednesdays (9 AM - 11 AM) are available for tours. Email Mrs. Becker: info@smsnarberth.org for more information.
