PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Years ago, I heard the tale of a young priest who made his homily for Palm Sunday a dramatic exclamation of "Wow!" before continuing the Mass. That might be a sensitive Christian's response in a private setting. But this day calls for more to be said, albeit briefly, as even the liturgical directions suggest.

The astounding love that prompted the Son of God's acquiescence to His Father's will is the most compelling part of the greatest story ever told. Marvelous miracles and penetrating parables certainly have their place in the public record of what Jesus did. But if actions ever spoke louder than words, this Good Friday event is the Lord's megaphone. And we poor sinners can do no more nor less than listen, and yes, learn.

As we hear the Passion read to us, or ponder it privately, today and throughout this coming Holy Week, there may come to us a healthy onrush of guilt. That's because our sins, yours and mine, ultimately caused this to happen. What our Redeemer suffered deserves our tears.

But neither guilt nor tears was the purpose of the Passion nor the intent of Christ. After all, He told the women of Jerusalem along His way to Calvary: "Weep not for Me." And so I conclude this brief reflection with a blessing for you, even if you want to think "Wow!" But I heartily recommend a far better reaction to the Passion in this well-known prayer of St. Francis of Assisi: "I adore You, O Christ, and I praise You... because by Your holy cross You have redeemed the world."

From the Pastor

Holy Week

Sharing in the Passion – There is much suffering and sacrifice that has come from the coronavirus pandemic. There are the sufferings of those who are ill, the strain on health care workers and caretakers, the economic hardships for so many people, the disruption in our normal lives, and the burden of social isolation. All this suffering is not meaningless. Jesus shows us the power of suffering, because by his suffering and death he brought salvation to the whole world. As Christians we believe that our suffering is not meaningless because our sufferings can be united to those of the Lord on the cross. Through our union with Christ, the Lord gives us the privilege of sharing with him in the work of salvation. The practice of offering up our sufferings captures the truth that we can unite our sufferings with the Lord's and so share in his work of the ongoing redemption of all the world. The redemptive power of our suffering allows us to bear it more readily. With trust in their value, we not only bear our sufferings but we can even endure them joyfully in the depths of our spirits.

Holy Week – This is the most sacred and solemn week of the Church Year. Our celebrations this week make present for us the passion, death and resurrection of our Lord. Today we celebrate the entrance of Our Lord into Jerusalem. On Holy Thursday we celebrate the institution of the sacraments of the Eucharist and Holy Orders. On Good Friday we contemplate the passion and death of our Lord, and on Easter Sunday, we celebrate his resurrection from the dead. These events in the life of Jesus are the most significant events in the entire history of all the world. Through his passion, death and resurrection Jesus won salvation for people of all times and places. Our celebrations this week allow us to rejoice in these saving events and to enable their meaning and power to penetrate more deeply into our hearts and souls. These are not just events of the past; through our celebrations the saving power of Jesus is made present for us today and is poured forth upon all the world.

Times for Holy Week Services - We will celebrate Morning Prayer on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday at 8 am each morning. There are no morning Masses on those days. Mass on Holy Thursday will be at 7:30 pm. On Good Friday the Liturgy of the Celebration of the Passion of Our Lord will be at 3:00 pm. The Easter Vigil will be celebrated at 7:30 pm on Holy Saturday, and I will celebrate a Mass early on Easter Sunday. Public services are still suspended. All these Holy Week liturgies can only be celebrated in private and we will stream them out through the internet as we have been doing.

Additional Times for Confession – I am available for confession every Tuesday through Saturday from 7:45–7:55 am. Confession will also be available this week on Tuesday evening, April 7 from 8-9 pm, and on Holy Saturday from 8:30-9:30 am, and 3:30-4:45pm. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is a great gift from the Lord by which he draws us back to him, extends to us his mercy, and fills us with his grace to live a good and holy life.

Church Teaching: The Symbolism of the Altar – The altar, around which the Church is gathered in the celebration of the Eucharist, represents the two aspects of the same mystery: the altar of the sacrifice and the table of the Lord. This is all the more since the Christian altar is the symbol of Christ himself, present in the midst of the assembly of his faithful, both as the victim offered for our reconciliation and as food from heaven who is giving himself to us. “For what is the altar of Christ if not the image of the Body of Christ?” asks St. Ambrose. He says elsewhere, “The altar represents the Body of Christ and the Body of Christ is on the altar.” The liturgy expresses this unity of sacrifice and communion in many prayers. (from the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Spiritual Thought – Where can the weak find a place of firm security and peace, except in the wounds of the Savior? Indeed, the more secure is my place there, the more he can do to help me. The world rages, the flesh is heavy, and the devil lays his snares; but I do not fall, for my feet are planted on firm rock. (St. Bernard of Clairvaux)

A Little Humor – I went to the doctor and he said, “You’ve got hypochondria.” I said, “Not that as well!” (Tim Vine, Comedian)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On Good Friday, April 10, 2020, we celebrate the mystery of the Lord's Passion, contemplating the sacrifice by which Jesus redeemed the human race from sin and death. It also has been our long standing tradition as Catholics to offer alms in support of the Catholic Community in the Holy Land.

As directed by our Holy Father, Pope Francis, funds generated by this collection support programs and services in the Holy Land. Support is needed to maintain the sacred places, to provide educational and pastoral programs as well as outreach programs for the poor through established charitable institutions.

On behalf of those Christians and others in so much need, I seek our most generous and sacrificial support of the Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land on April 10, 2020. I know that God our Father will reward your generosity beyond all measure.

Gratefully and with best wishes in Jesus Christ,
Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.
Archbishop Emeritus of Philadelphia

Prayer - Jesus, Healer of Wounds and Source of Mercy, your hands

embrace and welcome little children. As we look on your hands painfully nailed to the cross, extend your Divine Mercy to the tens of millions of women and men in our nation who are wounded from their participation in abortions. Help us as a Church to recognize the unique pain that abortion brings to individuals, families and our society. May the wounds of your hands on the Cross remind us each day of your steadfast love for us as we seek to build a culture of life and be faithful instruments of your hope and healing.

FAST AND ABSTINENCE AND OTHER ACTS OF PENANCE FOR LENT

The Bishops of the United States prescribe, as minimal obligation, that all persons who are fourteen years of age and older are bound to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday, February 26, 2020, on all the Fridays of Lent and Good Friday. Further, all persons eighteen years of age and older, up to and including their fifty-ninth birthday, are bound to fast by limiting themselves to a single full meal on Ash Wednesday and on Good Friday, while the other two meals on those days are to be light.

All the faithful are encouraged, when possible, to participate at Mass and to receive the Holy Eucharist daily, to celebrate frequently the Sacrament of Penance, to undertake spiritual reading, especially the study of the Sacred Scriptures, and to participate in parish Lenten devotions as well as Lenten education programs. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is especially recommended.

All are encouraged to participate in Operation Rice Bowl which has aided countless hungry persons here in the Archdiocese as well as throughout our nation and our world.
