PENTECOST SUNDAY

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

I have never won a big prize in a chance contest. Small ones, yes, but nothing really exciting such as you see from time to time on TV. But you can bet that if I ever did, I'd show it.

Those thoughts came to me after reading this weekend's Readings. I can easily imagine the faces of the Apostles in those Pentecost scenes. Chronologically, the Gospel section happens first. It is the evening of the first Easter, and the dejected and frightened Eleven are suddenly stunned to see their Master fully alive and glowing with an enhanced appearance. Not only that they hear His familiar voice wish them peace. No scolding. No reminding them of their disappearance from the crucifixion scene. He even lets them see for themselves the scars left on Him from the ordeal of the crucifixion. Their eyes must have widened; their brows furrowed; mouths agape; their whole bodies experiencing shock and relief at the same time. "He is alive!" they think, "and we know for sure that He was truly dead!"

Only days later, their faces again reflected fear and wonder when the wind roared and there appeared tongues of fire above their heads. But they also felt a surge of confidence within themselves. When they later started to preach, they were equally amazed to see that everyone in a mixed crowd understood what they said!

All of this sounds too good to be true as we hear about it again this Pentecost Sunday centuries later. Right now, this pandemic may have loosened our grip on optimism. Made us battered and bruised by statistics. Annoyed by facemasks and false distances from each other. Anyway, we have not experienced tongues of fire overhead or anything like it in the time since. Don't be too sure.

Have we not at least felt a touch of that fire when we know that we have helped lead someone to embrace the faith? Have we not been happily surprised when a complete stranger to the faith understands what we are taking about as we explain a teaching of our Church, and see them nod in appreciation? There is a certain deep joy in hearing a person suddenly acknowledging Jesus as their Lord and Savior, is there not? These are wonderful happenings not to be ignored. We're actually watching the Holy Spirit at work.

Jesus is truly alive, and the sending of His Holy Spirit still lasts beyond our generation. This current time of testing we have endured since last winter will certainly produce lessons to be learned. But we will always have our own unique mission to make our risen Lord known. It's our turn to be His Apostles for our time and place, always remembering a simple truth: that you and I can preach a better sermon with our lives than with our lips. Happy Pentecost!

From the Pastor

Pentecost Sunday – This Sunday marks the end of the fifty days of the Easter Season. We celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles that enabled them to fearlessly preach the Gospel and draw people to faith in Jesus Christ. The coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost was the fruit of the passion, death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus. The Spirit comes to draw us into union with Christ and one another in the Church. Pentecost is referred to as the birthday of the Church because of the great number of believers that resulted from the preaching of the apostles. Jesus instituted the Church as the means by which he would pour forth his saving grace and the power of the Spirit upon us. We lift up our hearts in thanks today for the wonders of God’s love in sending the Spirit upon us and bestowing on us the gift of the Church, the community of believers, by which the faith of the apostles and the redemptive power of Christ is passed on to his people.

Synopsis of the Zoom Virtual Parish Pastoral Council Meeting on May 13 – (Members are: Msgr. Dougherty; Nicole Bazis; Bess Combs-Chmielewski; Lauren DeMaio; George Gazella; Marybeth Hagan; Robert McCairns; Mary Anne Monroe; Martha Ortiz; Monica Romeo; Teresa Albers; and April Gordon) - 1) Announcements and Reports: a) Nicole reported on the Livestreaming of the Masses. The system has been working well and the number of viewers has been good. Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday had particularly high viewership. Daily Masses are averaging about 150 views, and Sunday Masses about 400 views. b) Regarding Parish Finances, there has been a loss of some school income from the cancellation of our fundraiser Maggie’s Pub and the end of the before-and-after School Cares Program. We have continued to pay all our employees and did receive a loan from the government as part of the Paycheck Protection Program. We are currently reviewing the government guidelines to determine how much of the loan can be forgiven. After the third quarter, the projection for this fiscal year was, regarding operating expenses, that the School would break even and the Parish would finish $75,000 in the black. This money would be used for capital expenses. c) Regarding capital expenses, projects to repair the sidewalks of the Church and School, as well as to better manage the water runoff from the back parking lot, and to reseal both the front and back parking lots will be done in June. Plans for refurbishing the Antioch Annex have been put on hold. Plans to move the baptismal font and to pull up the carpet in the sanctuary and restore the floor will proceed this summer. 2) We discussed current restrictions on Church gatherings, and plans for reopening the Church for public Masses when the permission is granted. We also discussed possible scenarios for School and PREP in the fall. 3) Some members of the Council have served for many years. Monsignor will approach some parishioners over the summer to see if any are interested in serving on the Council. 4) Nicole is working on plans for sending out a Parish newsletter on occasion. 5) Plans for a Parish Social in the fall are on hold until we see what happens with the restrictions surrounding the pandemic. 5) The Meeting closed with a prayer. We will meet again in September.

Seminarian and Priest - Father Anthony Cossavella, a priest of the Archdiocese and a friend of mine, is on a temporary health leave and is currently residing at our rectory. I am glad to be able to offer him our hospitality. Also, Kenneth Omeke, who is a native of Nigeria and currently a seminarian studying for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, has been assigned to our Parish for a summer internship experience. He will be with us from June 6 to August 2. I am grateful that he will be among us this summer and extend to him a heartfelt welcome.

Church Teaching: The Holy Spirit and the Church – Because the Holy Spirit is the anointing of Christ, it is Christ, who as head of the Body, pours out the Spirit among his members to nourish, heal, and organize them in their mutual functions, to give them life, send them to bear witness, and associate them to his self-offering to the Father and to his intercession for the whole world. Through the Church’s sacraments, Christ communicates his Holy and sanctifying Spirit to the members of his Body. (from the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Spiritual Thought – Go and find Jesus when your patience and strength give out and you feel alone and helpless. Say to him: “Jesus, you know exactly what is going on. You are all I have, and you know all. Come to my help.” And then go and don’t worry about how you are going to manage. That you have told God about it is enough. He has a good memory. (St. Jeanne Jugan)

A Little Humor – The pastor liked to lightheartedly quiz young first communicants during their first communion Mass. “What do you have to do to get to heaven?” he asked. A dozen seven- and eight-year-olds contemplated their shoelaces, but Molly raised her hand confidently. “Die!” she declared.

DO YOU KNOW YOUR TRIBUNAL?

The Tribunal is available to help people who have experienced divorce and who may wish to remarry in the Catholic Church.

When a divorce occurs, the Catholic Church always seeks to balance two realities. One is the durable bond of marriage. This is God’s law. On the other hand, the Church is concerned about the spiritual welfare of the people involved. Even though a Catholic marriage was celebrated, perhaps there was some deficiency in the consent of the parties involved regarding intentions, understanding or ability. The annulment procedure addresses these circumstances.

If you are divorced and want to marry in the Church, or remarried outside the Catholic Church, please find us on the web at archphila.org under the “How Do I” tab.
