THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Last month the Smithsonian magazine featured a story about a little known visit of George Harrison to the quiet town of Benton, Illinois. "Who is George Harrison?" some of you younger folks may ask. He was the lead guitarist of the Beatles, the famous "Fab Four" of the 60's and 70's and beyond who entertained the world. They came out of Liverpool, England. It happened that George had a sister who lived in Benton (pop. 7,000 at the time).

The story detailed just how the townspeople welcomed young Harrison, long before his world fame. To them he was just Louise's brother, and despite what they thought about his strange haircut and his torn jeans, they believed he deserved their hospitality. The few that got to hear him play his guitar really liked what they heard. For my purposes here, it was the kindness of his reception from the townsfolk that I point out as something we can emulate in our own lives from a spiritual outlook.

The story I read concludes with this statement: "For his own part, George never said much about his visit beyond noting somewhat wistfully in a letter to Louise shortly after his return to England, that he'd enjoyed her friends and neighbors: 'They're great people. They were glad to see me—not because I'm a Beatle, but because I'm me.'"

That compliment to the people of Benton sprang from an appreciative visitor. I hear echoes of that famous Last Judgment scene later in Matthew's gospel, where the King says to those on his right "I was a stranger and you welcomed me." This pandemic that has forever changed our lives and our memories of 2020 compels us to deduce helpful lessons even before it definitively ends. One of those has to be a renewed awareness of the value and importance of our friends. Now we will relate to them in better ways. Add to that the significance of hospitality. Any stranger we meet can become our friend.

Of course our holy Faith brings with it an added dimension to our unexpected new insight. It reminds us that every person is a child of God, beginning with the members of our families. Even if it may be hard to accept, this also includes those on our "enemies list." We realize that Gospel living is not all that complicated, and is rather quite connected to our being human and in love with Christ. It's the smile, the word, and that cup of water given in His name. Bear in mind that there is a distinction between hospitality and entertainment. "Entertaining says, 'I want to impress you with my home, my clever decorating, my cooking. Hospitality, seeking to minister, says, 'This home is a gift from my Master. I use it as He desires.'" (Karen Mains in Open Heart, Open Home, Elgin, Ill.:Cook, 1976)

From the Pastor

Birth of Our Nation – On Saturday, July 4, we celebrate the 244th Anniversary of the founding of our nation. Recent events have helped to make clear that the building of a nation founded on principles of justice and peace for all requires ongoing change and renewal. The principles of our founding impel us to make every effort to overcome racism and all the injustices that keep people from enjoying equality and pursuing the fullness of life, liberty and happiness. Mass will be celebrated on July 4 at the usual Saturday morning time of 8:00 am. We will pray that God will watch over us and inspire us to work for respect for the lives of all people from the unborn to the elderly, and for people of every race and tongue.

Capital Projects – a) The replacement and repair of some of our sidewalks is now underway. The stone wall in front of the School which is tilting quite a bit will also be reset. b) A project to facilitate water drainage from the back schoolyard was recently completed. The drainage now in place will help to divert the heavy water runoff from our schoolyard to a nearby sewer. c) In mid-July we are planning to take up the maroon carpet in the Church sanctuary. We are hoping that the floor beneath it will be able to be cleaned and restored. If that is not possible, we will cover it with a new carpet. d) Also, in mid-July we are planning to move the baptismal font from the sanctuary to a place closer to the main entrance of the Church, a few pews in from the main doors. Your generosity and support enable us to make these necessary repairs and upgrades for our Parish buildings and grounds.

Congratulations and Best Wishes to Father Guckin – Clergy assignments were announced last weekend, June 19-20. Father Guckin, who resided here at St. Margaret's for two years, has been appointed the parochial administrator of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish in Doylestown. Our prayers and best wishes go out to him as he begins this new assignment.

Saints Peter and Paul – Monday, June 29, is the Solemnity of the Apostles Peter and Paul. These two disciples of Our Lord played the principal roles in the spread of Christianity. Both devoted their lives to bringing the good news to all the world and both suffered death as martyrs for the faith.

Red Cross Blood Drive – Because a number of places are not capable of hosting Blood Drives this year and observing the necessary social distancing, the Red Cross has asked us to host two Blood Drives in our cafeteria this summer. The Drives will be on Wednesday, July 1 from 2:00 – 7:00 pm and on Thursday, July 2 from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm. There is a critical need for blood donors at this time. Sign up at redcrossblood.org/give.html using sponsor code SMRCCNarberth. Due to social distancing, there will be no walk-ins, so please sign up for an appointment today. If you have any questions, or need assistance in scheduling an appointment, email Christina Braun at christinabraun2002@yahoo.com or call her at 610-952-5766.

Parish Garden – Narberth Borough is setting aside some land for a community garden. Our Parish put its name in for a plot and we were chosen in the lottery. If you want to help with the work in the garden, please contact Nicole Bazis at faith@sainmarg.org, or at 610-664-3770 ext. 20.

Priesthood Ordination – Five men were ordained as priests for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia on Saturday, June 20: Reverend Wilmer A. Chirino-Gonzalez, Reverend Cesar Javier Izaguirre-Gonzalez, Reverend Louis J. Monica, Jr., Reverend Kevin C. Okafor, and Reverend August A. Taglianetti. We are grateful that God has called them to serve as priests and we extend to them our prayers and support as they begin their priestly ministry.

Church Teaching: Priests, Co-workers of the Bishops – Christ, whom the Father hallowed and sent into the world, has, through his apostles, made their successors, the bishops namely, sharers in his consecration and mission; and these, in turn, duly entrusted to varying degrees various members of the Church with the office of their ministry. The function of the bishops' ministry was handed over in a subordinate degree to priests so that they might be appointed in the order of the priesthood and be co-workers of the episcopal order for the proper fulfillment of the apostolic mission that had been entrusted to it by Christ. Because it is joined with the episcopal order the office of priests shares in the authority by which Christ himself builds up and sanctifies and rules his Body. Hence the priesthood of priests, while presupposing the sacraments of initiation, is nevertheless conferred by its own particular sacrament. Through that sacrament priests by the anointing of the Holy Spirit are signed with a special character and so are configured to Christ the priest in such a way that they are able to act in the person of Christ the head. Dear Brothers and Sisters,

“Caring for the poor is not just something nice the Church does; it’s a part of who we are and essential to the Church’s saving work.” (Bishop Jaime Soto, Chairman, CCHD Subcommittee, U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops)

These words from my brother Bishop Soto express well our solidarity with the poor as essential to our identity as followers of Jesus, who was born of humble origins, worked as a manual laborer, and identified with the poor and marginalized people of his day. As missionary disciples of Christ in our own day, we are called to be genuinely concerned for the well-being of our brothers and sisters who lack the basic necessities which everyone deserves in order to live a full and dignified human life.

With that calling of our Lord in mind, I enthusiastically welcome your support of our annual collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), which this year commemorates 50 years of concretely assisting poor and disadvantaged members of our local communities. CCHD is the domestic anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, and works closely with dioceses across the country to support low-income community groups to address the root causes of poverty. By helping those who are poor and powerless to participate in decisions and actions that affect their lives, CCHD offers a hand up, not a hand out, helping the most vulnerable members of our communities.

In our country today, nearly 47 million people are living in poverty, which is one of every six Americans, and one of every five children. This growing gap between those who are financially secure and those who are not now includes many middle-class families who have been adversely impacted by the economic consequences of the current pandemic. More than one in four residents in our region now suffers from insecurity about their income, food, or health care. These brothers and sisters of ours need the collective efforts of all of us who care enough to make a difference. Through CCHD, the Catholic Church reaches out to involve and support people in acting together to improve their own lives, overcome injustices, and escape the cycle of poverty. As Catholics, we are called to stand with them and be their advocates as they strive to achieve living conditions worthy of their inherent God-given human dignity.

The annual CCHD collection in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia will occur at masses on the weekend of July 4th and 5th. Your contribution will help your neighbors near and far to realize a better future for themselves and their families. God bless you for your generous response to this year’s CCHD appeal.

Gratefully and with best wishes in Christ,
Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

Spiritual Thought: The Cascade of Tenderness – As when a mother takes her child upon her knee and caresses him or her: so the Lord will do and does with us. His is the cascade of tenderness which gives us much consolation. “As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you” (Isaiah 66:13). Every Christian, and especially you and I, is called to be a bearer of this message of hope that gives serenity and joy: God’s consolation, his tenderness towards all. But if we first experience the joy of being consoled by him, of being loved by him, then we can bring that joy to others. This is important if our mission is to be fruitful: to feel God’s consolation and to pass it on to others. (Pope Francis)
