Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Back in June, the CBS Sunday Morning show presented a feature about a hobby spawned by the Covid 19 lock down, one with devotees famous and non. It's making and baking bread in your home kitchen. Housebound as we were in those early bouts with the virus, people had the time, if not the talent, but learned by doing of the fun involved in creating wonderful varieties of bread. This not to omit mention of those enticing aromas emanating from their ovens just shy of that first taste. This offset the imbalance generated by a paranoia over carbohydrates. After all, who can imagine a delectable sandwich without the bread?

With this weekend's Readings in mind, especially Isaiah's talk of a banquet and Our Lord's miracle of feeding the crowd, it was natural for me to think about a link with this current fad. We human folk love our bread, as the supermarket aisle testifies to so many commercially made varieties of it. When it isn't handy, some respond by making their own.

Apply those thoughts to the special Bread, that of the Eucharist. While most of our parishes and other institutions delegate the chore of making and baking the unleavened bread to others, still we know the Holy Eucharist as bread par excellence after the Consecration at Mass.

Among the many lessons to be gleaned from the pandemic shutdown is the fact that our Christian life is weakened and left hungry without this Gift of His Divine Son. We sinful but repentant believers have our hands full just being faithful these days. That Jesus chose this humble method of identifying Himself with a host of bread and a cup of wine is remarkable, imaginative, and loving. In fact, it's divine. No wonder that the Eucharist is called "the true treasure of our Church." Hardly a hobby and never a fad.

By the way, if you're going to be baking any bread, making the best of things with your limited "domestic tranquility," invite some friends over for a slice. Maybe even a whole loaf. That would be a reminder of the kinship the Eucharist promotes.

"It is the greatest of all mistakes to do nothing because you can only do a little. Do what you can." (Sydney Smith, English wit and Anglican clergyman.) – God love you and give you His peace!

From the Pastor

Little Sisters of the Poor – The Little Sisters of the Poor were scheduled to come here for their annual solicitation at the doors of the Church for funds to support their ministry to the elderly at Holy Family Home in Philadelphia. The Sisters were unable to come here and to many other Churches during the year because of the coronavirus. In addition, several of their annual fundraisers were cancelled or curtailed. If you would like to support the work of the Sisters, you can send a donation to the Home. The address is: Holy Family Home, 5300 Chester Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19143-4929, or you can donate online by going to the website (www.littlesistersofthepoorphiladelphia.org).

The Transfiguration of the Lord – This Thursday, August 6, we celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord. The Lord ascended Mount Tabor with Peter, James and John, and was transfigured in their sight. His clothes became dazzlingly white and he radiated the brilliance of God. The voice of God the Father proclaimed from heaven, “This is my chosen Son; listen to him.”

This dramatic event in the life of Christ reveals to us our destiny in God’s plan; we are called to share in the glory of Christ. This will happen in all its fullness in the world to come, but even now we share in the life of Christ and are called to radiate his light to our world. Following the way of Christ allows us to radiate his life and light. We share in his glory by listening to him, walking in his ways, and uniting ourselves to him. Open your hearts to Christ so that you can experience ever more deeply the warmth of his love and shine with the radiant glory of his light.

Monthly Food Collection – Our monthly food collection to help replenish the pantries of the Archdiocesan food banks has resumed. Your donations of non-perishable food items help to overcome the hunger so many families in our area experience because of a lack of sufficient food. Bags will be available at the doors of Church this weekend. You can purchase items to place in them and bring them to the school cafeteria before the Masses during the weekend of August 8-9.

Weekly Discernment Groups

High School and Post-High School Men

Men, high school and post-high school, who are exploring a possible call to the priesthood are invited and encouraged to attend Weekly Discernment Groups with Fr. The men gather from 6:30 to 8:00 PM on Sunday nights (Post-High School Men) and Thursday nights (High School Men). To participate in these discernment groups, please contact Fr. DeLacy at fr.sdelacy@archphila.org.

Spiritual Thought – Patient endurance is the perfection of charity. (St. Ambrose)

A Little Humor – All the baby books tell you that infants need to eat every two to three hours, but what they fail to mention is that this behavior continues until the child moves out of your house.

Weekend Mass Schedule August 8-9

Church Teaching: Sanctuary Furnishings – The principal ritual furnishings within the sanctuary are the altar on which the Eucharistic sacrifice is offered, the ambo from which God’s word is proclaimed, and the chair of the priest celebrant. These furnishings should be constructed of substantial materials that express dignity and stability. Their placement and their design again make it clear that although they are distinct entities, they are related in the one Eucharistic celebration. (from the document, published in year 2000, “Built of Living Stones: Art, Architecture and Worship” of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops)
