Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Back in June, a good friend sent me a video of something amazing. It seems an Amish farmer wanted to move his large pole barn to another place on his property. So, does he call in a moving company with heavy equipment? No! Instead he calls on about 300 of his closest friends, and they together actually lift the skeleton of the massive structure and walk it to the new location!

Viewed from a distance, the men's black clad legs are seen standing out from the bottom of the red building as they walk in unison following the directions of a leader. It's as if the building becomes a mammoth centipede! The video is worth downloading. For one thing, you will see the importance of "lending a hand" to a friend in need.

"Lending a hand" is precisely what Our Lord does in this week's chosen Gospel passage. A storm at sea is raging. Jesus has left His prayer place on the mountain and suddenly appears walking on the waves! When Peter catches sight of Him, He jumps out of the crowded boat onto the water and he takes a few tentative steps toward His Master. But all of a sudden, logic kicks in; awareness steps up, and Peter loses his confidence and begins to sink. Only when Jesus lends a hand to lift his friend up does the crisis end. (I often picture Jesus with a smile on His handsome Face, maybe even with an added chuckle, as color returns to Peter's scared face as he stands solidly again.)

Of course, it is the perfect opportunity for Our Lord to remind Peter that his faith needs a little updating. Some added depth. More strengthening private prayer.

Naturally, the Holy Spirit wants us to ask ourselves some probing questions as He presents this well-known gospel scene. When life puts us in some "rough water" we know who we can depend on. Such "stormy seas" will come to nearly all of us at one time or another. So, do we turn to God when it happens, or do we rely only on our instinct for self-preservation? Or the cleverly concocted myth of self-reliance that eschews help? That Amish farmer knew better with his problem.

Without belaboring the obvious, I trust that we have all learned a lot about ourselves and our dependency upon each other during these months of the pandemic, with the probability of more months to come. Hopefully, you and I as believers have stepped up our reliance on God. We know in a brand new way that some problems are too much for our finite fiber to cope with, much less to solve. We need a helping hand. God's is the best.

Maybe you don't have 300 friends to call on to help solve your problem. But you do have One better than those by far. He once said: "Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will refresh you." He never reneges on a promise, and is always there to lend His most powerful Hand. After all, "problems are only opportunities with thorns on them." (Hugh Miller, Scottish scientist, d.1856.) God love you and give you His peace!

From the Pastor

Finance Council – The Council will meet on Wednesday, August 12, at 7:00 pm in the Antioch Annex.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary – Saturday, August 15, is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Because it falls on Saturday this year, it is not a Holyday of Obligation. However, it is fitting to honor this great feast by attending Mass that day. Mass will be offered at 8:00 am. We celebrate that Mary's body did not undergo corruption and was lifted up into heavenly glory. Because she was conceived free from original sin, she did not experience the bodily corruption of death. She fell asleep in the Lord and was transported into the fullness of heavenly glory. Mary's Assumption celebrates her special place in God's plan. She exemplifies for us our call to be obedient disciples of the Lord who say "yes" to his plan for us. Mary's cooperation with God's plan gave her a special role in our salvation. From her place in heaven she continues to intercede for us and lead us to her Son, the source of all goodness and light. We turn to Mary to inspire us to strive with all our heart to participate in the heavenly life she enjoys.

Deacons – Tomorrow is the Feast of St. Lawrence the Deacon. Lawrence was a deacon in Rome who suffered martyrdom about the year 258 A.D. during the persecution of Emperor Valerian. We know little else about his life but his position as a deacon indicates that he played an important role in the life of the Church and was a man of service.

Deacons receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders and assist the bishops and priest in serving the people of God. Deacons are especially called to be witnesses to charity, serving the needs of the poor and suffering. Deacons baptize, preach, assist with the distribution of Holy Communion and help to administer the various aspects of Church life.

Christopher DeMaio, a parishioner here at St. Margaret of Antioch Church, is being formed to become a deacon. The formation process extends over seven years. Chris has completed three of those years. He has been assisting at the altar and in various other capacities here in the Parish. We are grateful for his willingness to serve the Church as a deacon and we pray for him as he continues his formation through courses and programs at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary.

Blood Drive – Because of the distancing and sanitizing requirements implemented in the face of the pandemic, many places cannot host Blood Drives. For this reason, the Red Cross has asked us to host another Blood Drive here in our School cafeteria. The Drive will take place on Saturday, August 22, from 9 am to 2 pm. To make an appointment to give blood go to redcrossblood.org or call 1-800-red cross.

Church Teaching: The Altar – At the Eucharist, the liturgical assembly celebrates the ritual sacrificial meal that recalls and makes present Christ's life, death and resurrection, proclaiming "the death of the Lord until he comes." The altar is the center of the thanksgiving that the Eucharist accomplishes and the point around which the other rites are in some manner arrayed. Since the Church teaches that the "altar is Christ," its composition should reflect the nobility, beauty, strength and simplicity of the One it represents. In new churches there is to be only one altar so that it signifies to the assembly of the faithful the one Christ and the one Eucharist of the Church.

Spiritual Thought: Mercy – The mercy of God is not some beautiful idea, but rather a concrete action. There is no mercy without being concrete. Mercy is not doing good "in passing," but getting involved where there is something wrong, where there is illness, where there is hunger, wherever there is exploitation. (Pope Francis)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I appeal to you today to give generously to the National Collection for The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

As the only institution of higher education founded by the U.S. bishops and chartered by the Vatican, Catholic University is the national university of the Catholic Church, charged with educating the future leaders of the Church, the nation, and the world. Here are just two ways Catholic University is educating the next generation of clergy, religious, and young lay men and women from every geographical region of the United States:

- Catholic University is helping to renew and strengthen the Church. Through hosting a national conference series focused on laity response to the sex abuse crisis, and in creating an Institute for Diocesan Excellence in Administration (IDEA), where lay scholars and professionals can support clergy by providing expertise and accountability in the areas of education, finance, canon law, culture, and more, Catholic University will serve as a springboard in renewing and strengthening Catholicism in our country.
- Catholic University serves the Church by engaging its students to discover knowledge and truth through excellence in teaching and research. With its 12 schools and 23 research centers, the University provides an exceptional Catholic education to almost 7,000 students annually. By way of its many programs, such as those in ethical business practices; classical architecture; intelligence studies; neuroscience; nursing; Spanish language and Hispanic ministry; social service; and Catholic bioethics the University prepares students to respond to the many issues facing the Church and society today.

Our national university is educating an important generation of lay and ordained leaders within the United States. The Collection for The Catholic University of America will be held in parishes of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia on the weekend of August 15 and August 16, 2020. Thank you and God bless you for supporting America's Catholic university and the countless numbers of students who will experience an education grounded in Catholic tradition.

Sincerely in Christ,
Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia
