Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

You have likely heard the expression “the third rail” as denoting some sensitive topic. What does it mean? Technically, the term derives from an additional rail placed alongside regular track that supplies electric current to trains in some systems. At 600 volts, and always being “live”, this rail is obviously something to avoid touching.

Informally, “the third rail” is used to denote an issue considered by politicians to be too controversial for them to discuss. An “untouchable” one that may cause some politician to suffer politically. A well-known example is Social Security. Any meddling here could prove disastrous. Especially when addressing our dependent senior citizens, a politician has to be wary.

In the spiritual realm, one might say that forgiveness of others is a “third rail” topic for a lot of Christians. We all know that Jesus called for it to be an essential part of following Him. We realize that we should practice it toward anyone who has offended us in the myriad ways that people can. We admit that such a thing is easier said than done. So a homily on the topic might lead us to think: “Talk about something else, Father, and thank you very much.” But preach on it he must.

Have you ever bargained with the Lord this way: “Listen, dear Jesus, You don’t understand. I bent over backwards in friendly outreach to that person. I actually spoiled them with my trust and affection, yet they went ahead and betrayed me behind my back. Really, now, must I forgive them?” I wouldn’t be surprised to hear Jesus reply with one word: “Judas.”

Sure, there is injustice galore in our world. Its values are topsy turvy with what they should be. Sinners succeed where others fail. In Scriptural terms, “evil has its hour.” That evil comes to us in ways often small and unnoticed.

I know people struggle with this matter in the confessional. They tell me stories of the betrayal and hurt, and then they add: “I cannot forgive.” I try to comfort the penitent that they may be confusing their feelings with the objective act. They have to will forgiveness for the offender as Jesus directs us. He might add “Remember that I called Judas ‘friend’ right before his blistering kiss of betrayal.”

When we are guilty of betraying Jesus through our sins, we can be consoled by the words of today’s Responsorial: “The Lord is slow to anger and rich in compassion.” Would that we could act the same!

No doubt, it is a burden to live with hurt. It is a true cross. But carry it we must, if only to understand just a little of the weight of the Cross Jesus carried. Trust always that He knows the pain we have and He will not only refresh us here below, but lift it away in His heaven to come.

A man named John Oglethorpe, a member of Parliament and the founder of the colony of Georgia, happened one day to be talking to John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist church. Oglethorpe boasted, “I never forgive anyone.” To which Mr. Wesley sagely replied: “Then, Sir, I hope that you never sin.”

Prayer: Pathway to God

From the Pastor

R.C.I.A. – The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Classes will be resuming on Tuesday evening, September 15. These classes on our faith help to prepare those who are interested in becoming Catholic, as well as those who were baptized Catholic but are still in need of receiving the Sacraments of Confirmation and/or Holy Eucharist. If you are not able to attend on Tuesday evenings or in person, arrangements can be made for alternative times and ways of learning about the faith, If you are interested in participating, or have any questions about our Catholic faith and the reception of the sacraments, contact Msgr. Dougherty at pastor@saintmarg.org or 610-664-3770.

Baptismal Font – Work on moving the baptismal font to a place closer to the main entrance of Church will commence on Monday, September 14. The work is being done by the Liturgical Arts Studio of the St. Jude Shop in Havertown. The project will take about two weeks to complete. The font will be placed near the center aisle five pews from the back of Church. Parts of two pews near the center aisle on the Saint Joseph side will be removed and the font will be situated there on marble flooring. Church directives instruct that the font should not be in the sanctuary, but near the entrance of the Church so that it can stand out in its own sacred place and highlight the sacred nature and purpose of the Sacrament of Baptism as our entrance into the life of Christ and the Church.

Golf Outing Support – Our Parish and School Golf Outing will take place on Monday, October 5 at Bala Country Club. Your assistance with this social and fundraiser would be much appreciated. The 2020-2021 fiscal year is going to be a particularly challenging one for our Parish because of the costs involved with the pandemic. If you cannot be there for the golf, please consider joining us for dinner, or taking out one of the many opportunities for sponsorship associated with the Outing. To register for golf or sign up for one of the sponsorships, see the insert in today's bulletin or contact Anne Becker at info@smsnarberth.org or at 610-664-2640.

Ministry of Lector for both Deacon Candidate and Seminarian – Christopher DeMaio, a parishioner at St. Margaret's and a candidate for the Diaconate, will be installed into the Ministry of Reader on Saturday, September 19 at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary. This is a step toward ordination as a deacon. Kenneth Omeke, who is serving his pastoral formation assignment this year on Thursdays at St. Margaret's, will receive the Ministry of Reader at the same Liturgy. This is a step toward his ordination to the Diaconate and to the Priesthood. We extend our congratulations and prayers to both of them as they continue to move toward service as ordained ministers in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Collection for the Holy Land Shrines – The Collection for the Holy Land Shrines is normally taken up at the Liturgy on Good Friday. Due to the pandemic, this Collection was moved to this weekend, Sept. 12-13. There will be special baskets at the doors of Church for you to make your donation to this Collection for maintaining and enhancing the Shrines in the Holy Land. Your generosity helps to preserve sacred sites that are important to our faith.

Catholic Charities Appeal – Catholic Charities Appeal 2020 is still in progress. As of Aug. 28, 160 households in our Parish have contributed a total of $64,346 toward our goal of $84,835. Your donations help Catholic Social Services of the Archdiocese to provide many important helps to the needy. Your contributions support food banks, family service centers, schools for those with special needs, and many other good works. Please consider making a donation soon.

Church Teaching: Baptismal Font – Because of the essential relationship of baptism to the celebration of other sacraments and rituals, the parish will want to choose an area for the baptistry or the font that symbolizes that relationship. Placing the baptismal font in an area near the entrance or gathering space where the members pass regularly and setting it on an axis with the altar can symbolize the relationship between the various sacraments as well as the importance of the Eucharist within the life and faith development of the members.

Please remember in your prayers the souls of Charlotte Croce and Kathleen Valentine who recently passed away. May they rest in peace and their loved ones be comforted.

Spiritual Thought – Never be in a hurry; do everything quietly and in a calm spirit. Do not lose your inner peace for anything whatsoever, even if your whole world seems upset. (Saint Francis de Sales)
