Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Say the words “the pursuit of happiness” in conversation with the average educated American, and as he or she reacts with a knowing smile, they’ll recognize a phrase from one of our country’s most precious documents: the Declaration of Independence. In that masterful piece of writing, Thomas Jefferson specified that notion as a human right, alongside life and liberty.

I don’t think I’m far off the mark when I opine that a lot of false understanding has crept into that word “happiness.” Our present day culture is way wrong with their definitions. The root cause of that erroneous outlook lies in the change wrought to the meaning of the last word in the trio: “liberty.” Liberty is not license.

Here at the Eucharist we celebrate Christ’s real Presence among us, and call on Him for whatever help we need to live as He espoused. Obviously His way conflicts with the one espoused by our current culture. That puts power, wealth, fame and pleasure aside as ways to happiness. Granted, those four have a mighty drawing power. They have been campaigning to be our life’s goals since long before biblical times.

Jesus spells out His formula quite clearly in today’s Gospel selection: humility and service of others is what makes for true happiness in this life. Nothing else. Yet most thoughtful people think of Saint Teresa of Calcutta and her life choices, along with those of every saint in the calendar, young as well as old, as somehow on target with true Christian living. To someone of my advanced age that is of supreme importance as material for examination as what I’ll call the “Great Appointment” is nearer than it was when I was young.

We also know how annoying such a lifestyle is to the opposition, here portrayed as “the wicked” in this weekend’s selection from the Book of Wisdom. “Let’s kill him!” they shriek. The gospels present remarkably similar words on people’s lips on a certain Friday afternoon: “Crucify Him!”

The good news is that we can take comfort from the fact that Jesus is right as rain with His take on these matters, and has been all along. We agree that virtue is best expressed in action. Through humility and service of others.

Another non-Christian Founding Father of our country, Benjamin Franklin, who worked with Thomas Jefferson, wrote this comment about the concept of greatness in 1729, long before 1776:

“If we were as industrious to become good as to make ourselves great, we should become really great by being good, and the number of valuable people would be much increased. But it is a grand mistake to think of being great without goodness,” Franklin continued. “And I pronounce it as certain, that there was never yet a truly great person who was not at the same time truly virtuous.”

Parish Theme for 2020-2021

Rejoice in Hope; Endure in Affliction; Persevere in Prayer

From the Pastor

Perseverance and Patience – I thought by this Fall the challenges of Covid-19 would be behind us. I was hoping for School without masks and a return to normalcy. But the difficulties of Covid-19 are still with us. It is a time to practice patience and perseverance. When St. Paul described love, he began by saying “love is patient.” Patience is the first call of love. We need to be patient with one another and with the difficulties of life. Patience fosters perseverance. A spiritual book I was reading recently emphasized perseverance as the crucial virtue for growth in the Christian life. Love is steadfast and persistent, especially in the face of adversity. May the Lord bless us with a patient and persevering love for him and for others.

St. Margaret Golf Outing – Come join us for the St. Margaret Parish and School Golf Outing at Bala Country Club on Monday, October 4. See the other advertisement later in this Bulletin for information on how to register or to seek more information. Also, registration forms are available at the doors of the Church.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults – Anyone interested in learning about the Catholic Faith with a view towards possibly joining the Church, or anyone who is already an adult Catholic and still in need of Confirmation and/or First Communion is invited to join our Rite of Christian Initiation (R.C.I.A.) Program. We meet on Tuesday evenings and will begin on September 21. If Tuesday evenings are inconvenient for you, other arrangements can be made. Contact Msgr. Dougherty at pastor@saintmarg.org or at 610-664-3770.

Pastoral Council – We will meet on Thursday, September 23 at 7:00 pm in the Antioch Annex.

Parish Theme for this Liturgical Year (Rejoice in hope; endure in affliction; persevere in prayer.) -

Archbishop Fulton Sheen, one of the best known preachers in the history of the Catholic Church in America, said that he was a good preacher because he spent an hour in prayer each day. You may not have the time to spend an hour in prayer each day, but some time in prayer each day helps to fill us with God’s wisdom, strength and peace, and bestows a divine energy on our daily dealings that makes us much more effective in spreading the light of Christ. Prayer develops our spirits and enriches our life in all its aspects.

Church Teaching: The Eucharist, the Life of the Church – The Church draws her life from the Eucharist. This truth does not simply express a daily experience of faith, but recapitulates the heart of the mystery of the Church. In a variety of ways she joyfully experiences the constant fulfillment of the promise: “Lo, I am with you always, to the close of the age,” but in the Holy Eucharist, through the changing of bread and wine into the body and blood of the Lord, she rejoices in this presence with unique intensity. Ever since Pentecost, when the Church, the People of the New Covenant, began her pilgrim journey toward her heavenly homeland, the Divine Sacrament has continued to mark the passing of her days, filling them with confident hope. (from the encyclical “On the Eucharist in Its Relationship to the Church” of St. John Paul II)

Spiritual Thought – What do you wish for, what do you pray for, my dear brothers and sisters, when you come to church? Is it mercy? How can it be anything else? Show mercy, then, while you are on earth, and mercy will be shown to you in heaven. (Saint Caesarius of Arles)

The Saint Margaret's Knights of Columbus are sponsoring an essay contest open to all eighth graders in the parish. Students at Saint Margaret School have learned about the contest in their Language Arts class.
