REFLECTION by FR. PETERSON

Those of us who get our news from our tablets and laptops have noticed that at the bottom of the particular outlet's web page are smaller pictures of lesser news items and a grab-bag of features. One of the latter items that caught my eye one day was an invitation to compare photos of celebrities from their youth with their present-day looks. So amid a clutter of pesky ads were page after page of these comparisons.

The mysterious event in Our Lord's earthly life that we call His "Transfiguration" belongs in its own unique category. For a brief time, as we measure change, the Divine nature of our Savior burst through the bonds of His human nature and shone with a brilliance that dazzled the trio of Peter, James and John much like it would any of us. The fact that two great luminaries of Israel's history, Moses and Elijah, were in dialogue with the Divine reassures us of life beyond the grave. They represented the law and the Prophets respectively, the twin pillars of Israel's life with Yahweh.

I find it so reassuring that all this was not some kind of mirage when our beloved St. Peter blurts out: "Lord it is good to be here!" Of course it is. This is an unexpected glimpse of heaven. This is possibility raised to a higher power than we could imagine on our own.

No matter how much ignorance we have to contend with about what happens after death, the Church's belief and teaching, based largely on St. Paul, that our bodies will be changed, glorified and transfigured, this incident gives the most powerful witness to that belief.

I've often thought that the Church presents us with this account from Luke's gospel in the early part of Lent as a kind of spiritual "pep rally." It gets us charged up for victory over our sins through the voluntary penances we take on in this purple clad season. It is a confident answer to the "Why question" about penance in general and Lenten penance in particular.

Note that the transfiguration did not last so long as to have Peter, James and John forget about the reality of this "valley of tears" we presently inhabit. Down from the mountain came the three, with Jesus, minus visible glory walking down with them. Always the mission. Always the reality of lost souls needing hope and sinful souls needing mercy. That, my friends, is us. But let Luke's story stoke the fire of hope in our souls that when our earthly journey comes to an end, it really will be good to be there with Jesus.

From the Pastor

Synod and Called to More –The “Synod on Synodality: Communion, Participation, and Mission” is a two-year process launched by the Holy See. It is a time of listening and dialogue that began in 2021 and concludes in 2023. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to enter into a time of conversion in order to discern how to journey more closely together in the shared mission of the Church. Synodality refers to the members of the Church listening to one another and discerning how best to fulfill the mission of the Church in proclaiming the gospel and the truths of our faith. As part of the Archdiocesan phase of the Synod, listening sessions will be held regionally through both in-person and virtual meetings. The dates and places of nearby sessions are: March 19 from 9-11 am at St. Pius X in Broomall, and a young adult session on April 3 from 1-3 pm at the Villanova Connelly Center. A listening session for our Parish community will take place Thursday, March 31 at 7:00 pm in the Annex. All parishioners are welcome to come and share their thoughts on their experience of Church life and how we can work together to serve the Lord.

In addition, everyone in the Archdiocese has the opportunity to fill out an online survey called the Disciple Maker Index. The Archdiocesan program “Called to More” is an effort to understand the experience of parishioners so that their needs can be better served. The survey allows you to share your experience of your faith and the life of our Parish. Your thoughts will be helpful to me as your Pastor and to the Archdiocese in formulating what they will share with the Vatican for the Synod. I encourage you to take the Disciple Maker Index Survey online. Our Parish will be sending you the link by email. If you are unable to access it online, you can request a paper copy from the Parish office. You can fill out the copy and drop it back at the Parish.

The Synod consultation process provides an opportunity for all us to give input that can be helpful in discerning wise and good paths for our Parish, the Archdiocese and the Church Universal.

Pastoral Council—will meet on Wednesday, March 16 at 7 pm in the Antioch Annex.

Request for Help – One of our young parishioners, Yara Memar, will be speaking at all the Masses this weekend to solicit your help for a service project she has undertaken. She is collecting canned goods and school supplies for a Philadelphia organization that serves needy children. The canned goods and school supplies can be brought to Church next weekend, March 19-20.

Lenten Catechism Study Session – As an Adult Faith Formation program this Lent, we are encouraging parishioners to read Section IV, which is about Christian Prayer, of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Books were provided that have the Catechism broken down into brief daily readings. This Thursday, March 17, anyone who wishes can come to the Annex to discuss what they have been learning from the Catechism. I will give a brief presentation on the topics covered thus far, and then we’ll discuss the teachings of the Catechism on prayer.

Maggie’s Pub – Our Annual Social and Fundraiser for the School will take place on Saturday, March 19 from 6:30 – 9:30 pm in the Annex. A simple dinner of roast beef sandwiches will be provided. You are welcome to join us as we celebrate and support St. Margaret School.

Men’s Morning of Recollection – The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring a Men’s Lenten Day of Recollection on Saturday, March 26 from 8:00 am to 1:00 pm. Father Tim Danaher, O.P. will be conducting the day. All men are welcome to participate. If you wish to attend, or have any questions, contact Dane Connelly at daneconnelly@gmail.com. Coming to the Day of Recollection is a great way of honoring the spirit of Lent by seeking to come closer to the Lord.

Catholic Charities Appeal – The 2022 Appeal is underway. Please consider making a donation to this important collection to support the charitable works of the Archdiocese. You can donate through using the return envelope you received in the mail (extra envelopes are available in the vestibule of Church). You can donate online at catholiccharitiesappeal.org. Thank you for your support.

Eighth Grade Carwash Today – As part of their fundraising efforts, the Saint Margaret School Eighth Grade Class will be holding a carwash today, Sunday, March 13 from 10 am to 2 pm at Bob Wark’s Liberty Gas Station (300 Montgomery Avenue in Bala Cynwyd). Come out to get the winter road grime and salt washed off your car and support our SMS Class of 2022.

CHURCH TEACHING

The Apostolic Nature of the Eucharist – A sense in which the Church is apostolic, as the Catechism points out, is that “ with the help of the Spirit dwelling in her, the Church keeps and hands on the teaching, the ‘good deposit,’ the salutary words she has heard from the apostles.” Here too the Eucharist is apostolic, for it is celebrated in conformity with the faith of the apostles. At various times in the two-thousand-year history of the People of the New Covenant, the Church’s Magisterium has more precisely defined her teaching on the Eucharist, including its proper terminology, precisely in order to safeguard the apostolic faith with regard to this sublime mystery. This faith remains unchanged and it is essential for the Church that it remain unchanged. (from the encyclical of Saint John Paul II entitled “On the Eucharist in its Relationship to the Church”)

SPIRITUAL THOUGHT

Bringing the Gospel is bringing God’s power to pluck up and break down evil and violence, to destroy and overthrow the barriers of selfishness, intolerance, and hatred, so as to build a new world. Dear young friends, Jesus Christ is counting on you! The Church is counting on you! The Pope is counting on you! May Mary, Mother of Jesus and our Mother, always accompany you with her tenderness: “Go and make disciples of all nations.” (Pope Francis)
