SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

This July weekend finds us in the middle of the vacation season. We have to believe that vacations are a good thing. Wise people take advantage of the time to rest from work. People who never take time off lose out on regaining peace and restorative rest. Even God took a day off, and He had the biggest job of all!

The third century Church Father St. Irenaeus once wrote: "The glory of God is a man fully alive; and the life of man consists in beholding God." How can a person who is unable to take a real vacation hope to behold God? I take that as a warning for us to follow the Lord's advice and come away to rest now and then.

From another perspective, work without rest can be seen as a belief that defines our worth as based on our productivity, our output. How sad! It makes some people frightened of retirement. Imagine!

Eighteen years Our Lord's life was spent hidden in obscurity. He did not begin to ply His all-important "task" until He was thirty. Even afterward, He took time out for rest and prayer. He communicated with His heavenly Father. He thought. He pondered the prophets like Jeremiah whom we read about this weekend.

These thoughts extolling vacation time are not merely meant to be just a therapeutic response to the demands of our frenetic culture. Rather they are food for thought about our relationship with Jesus in the Sunday Eucharist.

The Mass is our weekly respite from concentration on temporal matters. It is not something to ignore, especially in this materialistic age. Nor are we to rush through to get to the next activity. If we are so hustled by our schedules, and harried by the clock, we will never realize that we are worth our own time to hear the Scriptures and break the Bread of Life.

No wonder some of us are so disproportionately afraid of death. Yes, if death will be our poor accounting of how we used our time. The good news is that we have this time, right now, to turn from all these lesser tasks we assign ourselves and go about loving the Lord and our neighbor. And we can take a vacation too.

Someone once described vacation as a brief period of recreation, preceded by a period of anticipation, and followed by a period of recuperation.

WORDS OF WISDOM - People don't care how much you know until they know how much you care.

From The Pastor

The Bumbling, Stumbling Disciples - This liturgical year the Sunday gospels are mainly taken from the Gospel of Mark. A striking characteristic of this gospel is that the Lord's disciples are often cast in a very unflattering light. They misunderstand the Lord, fall short in heeding his commands, seek their own glory rather than the way of service, and are presented as weak in faith. And yet, Mark emphasizes, it is these weak and imperfect people that the Lord has chosen to bring his gospel to the world. Aware of our weakness, it is a consolation to know that the disciples too were often weak and half-hearted in their response to the Lord. But the Lord chose them to be his disciples and do his work. We can get discouraged by our weakness and thus grow lax in our pursuit of holiness. In fact, I recall a spiritual writer saying that the biggest temptation we face as human beings is not greed, lust, pride, or anger, but discouragement. The disciples eventually, filled with the Holy Spirit, proved to be fearless and faithful followers of the Lord. May we not let discouragement keep us from striving for holiness. Encouraged by the Lord's mercy and saving power, may we always rise up from our weakness to seek the ways of God.

Church Teaching - Eucharist: Source and Summit

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesial ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself, our Pasch. The Eucharist is the efficacious sign and sublime cause of that communion in the divine life and that unity of the People of God by which the Church is kept in being. It is the culmination both of God's action sanctifying the world in Christ and of the worship men offer to Christ and through him to the Father in the Holy Spirit. (From the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

GIFT CARD SCAM ALERT

Please be advised that there is a nationwide scam that has affected several parishes in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. This particular scam is titled the "Gift Card" scam.

In this scam the parishioners of a parish are the targets. An unknown person creates an e-mail address account which contains the pastor's name or the name of the church. An e-mail is then sent to the parishioners requesting them to purchase a gift card and proceed to tell the unknown person the numbers off of the back of the cards. After the person received the numbers, they stopped sending emails.
