2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Embarrassment comes in many forms. Be it something amusing that reddens our face but makes our friends laugh, all the way to something of significance that demands our apology. You can fill in the blanks here with your personal details of remembered occasions.

Imagine if you will the embarrassment of this young couple from Cana at the center of our gospel story. Considering the fact that a wedding in those days generally lasted a week. "In a life where there was much poverty and constant hard work, this week of festivity and joy was one of the supreme occasions. One had to be prepared. Have stored up all the necessary food and drink. One theory holds that Jesus and His five new companions caused the problem perhaps showing up uninvited, but that reflects poorly on Our Lord's impeccable manners.

At any rate, the wine ran out. Wine was so essential for such an occasion. After all, even the rabbis said "Without wine, there is no joy." So the newlyweds had to ask themselves: "What are we going to do?" We know that Mary the Mother of Jesus had the answer. At her unspoken request behind the statement "They have no wine" Jesus works His first sign, or miracle. Embarrassment avoided.

There is so much meaning in a passage like this that we have to pick and choose for a limited space like this. Allow me to choose for brief reflection the compassion of Jesus' heart that poured out upon the unnamed newlyweds, and also the cost of it for Him.

First, Christ's compassion. From time to time, especially in crises, even the best of us doubt God's ways. Or, we say to ourselves that He cannot be bothered with the little everyday problems we face. We forget all those Scripture passages that speak so eloquently about God's love for us. Remember the one about having the hairs of our heads counted? Or another about His holding us in the palm of His hand?

Recall also that the mystery of Christ involves His having one Personhood but two natures, human and divine. He felt the upset of that couple. Perhaps the groom was a relative of His whom He watched grow up from childhood. Or maybe the bride was a cousin who bounced on His knee when she was a tot. Either way, there was a personal reason why He had been invited to the wedding. At His Mother's indirect request hiding behind her naming of the problem, Jesus willingly acted.

As for the cost, realize that this "sign" was evidently being worked earlier than Jesus' personal timetable. It was not yet His "Hour," that mysterious expression He would later use to describe His Passion. Here it meant the end of a private life, for both Mary and Him, because word of the miracle would spread far and wide, rivaling for its day what a text or tweet does in our own. That alone would be a trial for Jesus. Despite all this, Jesus advanced the Divine Timetable, partly because His Mother asked, and partly out of compassion for two little people in a tiny otherwise forgettable village named Cana.

From the Pastor

Surpassing of Goal for the 2018 Catholic Charities Appeal - We have received a letter of gratitude and congratulations from the Catholic Charities Appeal 2018 for surpassing our goal of $84,835. As of January 10, 2019, 202 donors from our Parish contributed a total of $86,163. Thank you for your tremendous generosity in helping to serve the needy of the Archdiocese.

Prayer for Christian Unity - January 18-25 is recognized each year as a Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. We pray that all Christians may move toward the unity the Lord intended when he prayed that all may be one. We pray this week that the divisions among Christians may be healed so that we can witness more powerfully and beautifully to Christ's call for unity of faith. I encourage you to offer this prayer each day from now until January 25: Almighty ever-living God, who gather what is scattered and keep together what you have gathered, look kindly on the flock of your Son, that those whom one Baptism has consecrated may be joined together by integrity of faith and united in the bond of charity. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Martin Luther King Day - We celebrate Martin Luther King Day on Monday, January 21. As our nation honors his role in fostering human rights, we pray for harmony and mutual respect among people of all races. Here is a prayer form the Roman Missal for this intention: O God, who show a father's care for all, grant, in your mercy, that the members of the human race, to whom you have given a single origin, may form in peace a single family and always be united by a fraternal spirit. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Respect Life - The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops have stated that in all the Dioceses of the United States of America, January 22, the date of the Supreme Court ruling legalizing abortion, shall be observed as a particular day of prayer for the full restoration of the legal guarantee of the right to life and of penance for violations to the dignity of the human person committed through acts of abortion. I encourage you to pray on Tuesday for respect for the lives of the unborn and to do some act of penance to as an offering of atonement. The Scriptures state that prayer and penance are powerful means of overcoming sin. May our prayers and penance help to promote respect for God's cherished gift of human life. Here is a prayer from the Roman Missal that you can bring to the Lord: God our Creator, we give thanks to you, who alone have the power to impart the breath of life as you form each one of us in our mother's womb; grant, we pray, that we, whom you have made the stewards of creation, may remain faithful to this sacred trust and constant in safeguarding the dignity of every human life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Volunteer Appreciation Dinner on January 26 - On Saturday, January 26, we will host an Appreciation Dinner for our Parish volunteers. After the 5:15 PM Vigil Mass, we will gather in the Antioch Annex for a meal to enjoy one another's company and to hear a presentation on the Eucharist by Reverend Dennis Gill, the Rector of the Cathedral-Basilica of Ss. Peter and Paul and the Director of the Office for Divine Worship of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

February 17 Marriage Anniversary Recognition - On February 17, which is the Sunday following Valentine's Day, we would like to recognize and bless the married couples in our Parish who are celebrating their 25th, 50th, 60th, and any multiples of five beyond the 60th. Wedding Anniversaries. At each Mass that Sunday we will announce the couples, ask them to stand, and offer a brief blessing and prayer for them. If you are celebrating one of the Anniversaries mentioned above and you wish to be recognized and blessed on Feb. 17, please call (610-664-3770) or email (office@saintmarg.org) and give your name, the anniversary you are celebrating, and the Mass you will be attending on February 17.

Spiritual Thought - Just as a ship tossed by the waves of a storm will be dashed to pieces unless it has an experienced captain at the helm, so anyone who is in difficulties will find their spirit broken and their hope of salvation dashed unless they are guided by the teaching of the Lord. (St. Albert the Great)
