SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Last month featured the annual Oscars' show, and millions of movie fans sat in front of their TVs for a look-see at their favorite stars. They knew the faces and the names better than I for sure. They chose their favorites for the winners. But there were other unseen people, hidden in plain sight among the theater audience, whose names and faces they did not know. They are the various artists who create the illusion that what we watch on the screen is real. Among them is an even smaller group in charge of makeup. With paints and padding, wigs and wrinkles, they manage to transform the famous actors into their characters. I believe all this effort aids the actors to get into character for their award-winning performances.

The transfiguration of Jesus was a far cry from such illusions. Peter, James and John truly saw what happened when Jesus pulled back the veil of His earthly appearance enough to leave them "dazzled," as St. Luke writes. Realists to their core, the three observers felt their jaws slacken.

Like me, you may wonder why Jesus did not do this sort of thing more often. It would have been so convincing to the skeptics among the crowds that followed Him that they would have dropped their opposition. But Jesus decided differently.

But as I thought about it some more, what the good Lord did with His miracles was to offer a compliment to us, specifically to our powers of deduction. Watching things like that widow's son climb out of his coffin; or that paralyzed man suddenly rise to take up his mat, not to omit that walk Jesus took on the water amid a raging storm. All of that calls forth a conclusion that is inescapable if not awfully hard to deny.

Lest we fail to make the connection, the Church this weekend offers us the thought of St. Paul. Here he writes to his Philippian converts and to us that we too will be changed to conform with Jesus' "glorified body." Since this would have been his feast day, I'll honor "great and glorious St. Patrick" as someone who would believe this to his core.

In the opening scenes of the musical "Camelot," we see King Arthur standing in a field dressed in the clothes of a common peasant. To look at him you would have no idea that he was king. In fact, when Guinevere first met Arthur, she didn't have a clue that he was king over all Camelot. Arthur was, in fact, king, but his appearance gave no evidence of this fact. Sound familiar?

From the Pastor

St. Patrick - March 17 is the Feast Day of St. Patrick. He was from England, but as a young man he was captured and sold into slavery in Ireland. Patrick later escaped, probably to France. He became a priest and was ordained a bishop. He then fulfilled his great desire to return to Ireland and convert it to Christianity. His persistence and courage in preaching the gospel resulted in many conversions to the Catholic faith in Ireland, and he realized his dream of helping the Irish people to come to faith in Jesus Christ and his Church. Although Patrick had been enslaved in Ireland as a young man, he did not let this experience fill him with bitterness and a vengeful spirit. He responded in love. He ventured back to Ireland to share with them the gift of the Christian faith. In his providence, God used Patrick's being taken as a slave to Ireland as a prelude that prepared Patrick for his life's work of preaching the faith to the Irish people. Patrick's trust in God's plan and his dedication to living and preaching the gospel is a great inspiration for us to trust in God's providence in our lives and allow God to use us as instruments of his truth, goodness and peace. Patrick died in about 460 AD, but his life and work continue to bear much good fruit.

Little Sisters of the Poor - The Little Sisters of the Poor will be at the doors of Church this weekend to collect funds for their mission to serve the elderly poor at Holy Family Home in Southwest Philadelphia. Thank you for your support.

Talk on Saint - Our Lenten faith formation offerings continue this week when I present a reflection on "My Favorite Saint and Why" on Thursday, March 21 at 7:00 pm in the Antioch Annex. Everyone is encouraged to let this Lenten Season be a time of growth in understanding and living our faith. Come and join us in reflecting on our faith.

Catholic Charities Appeal - The Catholic Charities Appeal 2019 is underway. Lent is a great time to make a donation. The Appeal gives you the opportunity to practice almsgiving, one of the pillars of Lenten devotion. Your support helps the Archdiocese to provide food cupboards for the needy and assistance to the homeless and those who have disabilities.

FORMED - This is a website that contains many resources to help you learn more about our faith this Lent. Our Parish has paid a fee that enables all our parishioners to get free access to all the resources provided through FORMED: videos, Scripture reflections, resources for children and families, and much more. Taking up one's cross each day and following Jesus is the surest way of penance. (from the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Message from Mrs. Johnston, Principal

Another page on the calendar has turned. March is here in full blast. Our Lenten journey has begun and the students have been asked to reflect on what their path will entail. Temperance is the virtue for the month of March. Through this virtue we invite your child to practice self-control in order to bring a balance to their thoughts and actions. Our social emotional focus is "social awareness." We want to lead our children to appreciate diversity and empathize with others, wherein they can grow in respect. Recently, one of our student's mentioned in a small group meeting that so many times we do not give others a chance. If they don't agree with us we think THEY are wrong. If they don't do things the way we do things THEY are weird. She stated "That is so wrong." She continued "We need to STOP judging one another and give others a chance. Thank you for her pure heart and wisdom.

PENNY WEIGH-IN! Thank you to all SMS students, faculty, staff, and parishioners who participated in our annual Penny Weigh-In. It was a huge success. We raised close to $950.00 for the Catholic Missions. Thank you for all your support!

This is how we fund the library! Middle School Reading Olympics: The countdown to our competition is starting - only 3 weeks away! Our SMS students go to weekly meetings and continue to read each day for this completion.

AND OTHER ACTS OF PENANCE FOR LENT

The Bishops of the United States prescribe, as minimal obligation, that all persons who are fourteen years of age and older are bound to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday, March 6, 2019, on all the Fridays of Lent and Good Friday. Further, all persons eighteen years of age and older, up to and including their fifty-ninth birthday, are bound to fast by limiting themselves to a single full meal on Ash Wednesday and on Good Friday, while the other two meals on those days are to be light.

All the faithful are encouraged, when possible, to participate at Mass and to receive the Holy Eucharist daily, to celebrate frequently the Sacrament of Penance, to undertake spiritual reading, especially the study of the sacred Scriptures, and to participate in parish Lenten devotions as well as Lenten education programs. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is especially recommended.

All are encouraged to participate in Operation Rice Bowl which has aided countless hungry persons here in the Archdiocese as well as throughout our nation and our world.
