TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

People who change the world aren't always whom you expect. They are housewives, repairmen, teachers, and the military to name a few. Ordinary people who believe in a better world.

Readers' Digest magazine recently chose what they called were "15 people who changed history." Among them were Rosa Parks, who wouldn't give up her seat on a Montgomery, Alabama bus on December 1, 1955. Todd Beamer and the passengers on Flight 93 who fought back against the 9/11 terrorists and crashed into a field in Shanksville, PA instead of slamming into our nation's capital. And then there was Candy Lightner, who stood up against drunk driving after her 13 year old daughter was killed by a repeat DWI offender. She founded Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) in her home on March 7, 1980.

Yes, such people aren't always whom you expect. Such of course is the case of God's only Son, that most extraordinary Person of all, who made Himself ordinary when He came to visit this planet in person some twenty plus centuries ago. He did that to save all of us from being forever locked out of His high heaven. He demanded that people change their way of living. He wanted them to shun sin.

People of every age are much the same, and sin can be such an attractive proposition at times even for the best of us. So because of His demands about avoiding sin, Jesus was never universally popular. He even puzzled His closest friends. But He knew, and tried to get them to know also, that if their human weakness held them down, His strength would lift them up. If asked, they would agree that He was truly a "man on fire." We agree, do we not?

We His present day followers would also have to admit that Jesus was not what we would expect of a Divine Redeemer. He really was the prophet's "sign of contradiction." He began His public life as a young man amid a culture that thought wisdom was only in the old. He was uneducated in the formal sense, having had only the usual synagogue syllabus. He was born into poverty when only the rich were greatly esteemed. He hailed from a dusty nearly forgotten village named Nazareth when the sophisticated people only came from the great cities

Despite this, Jesus was also magnetic and majestic in His preaching and example. An unusually confident Person, only angry when He had to be, especially when He clashed with those in authority. But in the end, He suffered the usual fate of the prophets like Jeremiah. "Crucify Him!" they shouted.

There are some conclusions we can draw from this brief recall, if we want to be authentic followers of the Nazarene. First of all, we have to remember our general ordinariness. This despite the fact that in God's eyes each of us is special.

We also must recognize that belief in Jesus always implies a call to action. And then, in this society of ours, with its warped sense of priorities and its tendency to discount God's very existence, we must realize that we will remain unpopular for our beliefs. Mocked sometimes by our own families. But we can lean on that great consolation we have that God is always with us, no matter what. That's how we know for sure that we each have the power to change the world. Not by putting it

From the Pastor

Stemming the Tide of Violence – Our hearts are heavy for the families and friends of those who died or were injured in the mass shootings in El Paso and Dayton. While there is much debate on how best to address this problem in our nation, one thing we can all do is to think of how we can be peacemakers in our daily lives. The Scriptures speak often of putting aside harsh actions and words and being more kind and compassionate in our dealings with others. This is something we should strive for daily, so that we bring God’s peace to our world and help to thwart the spread of violence.

ReBoot – This important Parish Event is less than two months away. We are hosting Chris Stefanick, a dynamic and faith-filled Catholic evangelist, at Archbishop Carroll High School on Thursday, October 10 from 7:00 – 9:30 pm. This Event originated in our Adult Faith Formation Committee. Its members realized the need for all of us to be continually renewed in our faith. People who have heard Chris Stefanick speak report that he has a wonderful way of helping us to appreciate the beauty of our faith and live it with more fidelity and energy so that we can experience more of the abundant life the Lord wants to share with us. Young people from sixth grade and above are also encouraged to attend. Come and join us for this special night. Tickets are $25 and can be purchased at the rectory or online at RealLifeCatholic.com.

Liturgy Committee – We will meet Thursday, August 22 at 6:00 pm in the rectory.

Please remember in your prayers the soul of Mary Keyser who recently passed away. May she rest in peace and her loved ones be comforted.

Church Teaching: Peace – Respect for and development of human life require peace. Peace is not merely the absence of war, and it is not limited to maintaining a balance of powers between adversaries. Peace cannot be attained on earth without safeguarding the goods of persons, free communication among men, respect for the dignity of persons and peoples, and the assiduous practice of fraternity. Peace is “the tranquility of order.” Peace is the work of justice and the effect of charity. (from the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

Spiritual Thought – The Lord measures our perfection neither by the multitude nor the magnitude of our deeds, but by the manner in which we perform them. (St. John of the Cross)

A Little Humor – A little boy asked his mother how people came to exist. So his mother said, “Adam and Eve made babies, then their babies became adults and made their own babies, and so on.” The child wanted a second opinion, so he went to his father and asked him the same question. The father sat the boy down and said, “It’s like this, son; we were monkeys, and then we evolved over time to become like we are now.” The boy went to his mother and said, “You lied to me!” His mother replied, “No, your father was just talking about his side of the family.”
