THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Maybe there is a good form of envy. Most of the common types are bad because they exemplify an ugly discontent with regard to another's advantages, success, possessions and more. The "good envy" I am proposing is really a misnomer. It's better to call it "wishful thinking," which I best do before you conclude that I've brazenly altered the list of capital sins.

All this thinking stems from an often expressed wish to have lived back in those "happy days when Jesus walked," as the beloved spiritual puts it. Especially after reading today's Gospel, this annual retelling of what took place on the road to Emmaus on a blessed afternoon long, long ago. I daydream of joining those two early Christians. What a lifelong memory they were going to have! All of that because Jesus had suddenly walked with them and joined in their conversation.

"Is there any other reason why I'd want to have been there?" you may ask. "Yes indeed!" I say. Because aside from Christ's company I would have been able to listen in as Jesus gave an incomparable Bible study. He taught "beginning with Moses and all the prophets, and interpreted to them all that referred to Him in all the Scriptures." What a lesson! What a Teacher!

But in a more down to earth second thought, you and I both have to remember that we already have a similar Emmaus experience on the road of our lives each and every Sunday. My wishful reverie fades as I remember that we have the same Scriptures, and the same Lord present to us, although at Mass Christ is truly present, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity, albeit invisibly under the appearances of bread and wine.

I have no wish to spoil our Easter joy with gloom, but in this context I must admit that we faithful believers must deal with a sad statistic that is both shocking and sad from a Pew survey: "37% of so-called Catholics do not believe in the real presence of Christ in the consecrated Eucharistic bread and wine." The same survey revealed that "22% of Catholics reject the idea, even though they know about the Church's teaching."

As for regarding the Holy Eucharist as a mere symbol, the stated belief of many non-Catholic Christian Churches, we have the earthy words of a devout mid-20th century American Catholic writer Flannery O'Connor, who put it this way: "Well, if it's a symbol, to hell with it." Blunt? Yes. Insightful? Yes. The Resurrection is really all the proof we need that everything Jesus said and did was approved by His heavenly Father.

In England there is a paper factory that makes the finest stationery in the world. One day a man touring the factory asked what it was made from. He was shown a huge pile of old rags and told that the rag content was what determined the quality of the paper. The visitor would not believe it.

A few weeks later he received from the company a package of paper with his initials embossed on it. On the top piece were written the words "Dirty rags transformed." The same is true of our Christian life. It is a process of transformation from what we were into something new and wonderful.

From the Pastor

The Whispers of the Lord – These days of distancing have made the rectory a very quiet place. Because of the quiet, I am much more attentive to sounds I never noticed much before: the chirping of the birds; the creaking noises of this old house; and the voices of people walking by. In an Old Testament passage, the prophet Elijah was told that the Lord would be coming to him. He heard the sound of an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; the sound of a strong wind, but the Lord was not there; the Lord came in a quiet whisper. Pope Francis has often spoken of the need for silence in our lives if we are to meet the Lord, enjoy his presence, and hear his voice. The disciples on the road to Emmaus met the Lord on a quiet walk through the country and at a simple meal at which the Lord broke the bread.

When I was working at the seminary and heard many seminarians tell the stories of how they felt the Lord calling them to the priesthood, I noticed that many of them heard the call in times of quiet and silence. One, for example, spoke of getting a job which required a lot of travel, and the quiet nights in hotel rooms gave him time to reflect and sense the Lord's presence and call.

The Lord comes to us most often in the quiet and ordinary moments of life. The required distancing has slowed us down in many ways and given us more time to reflect in the silence. The risen Lord walks with us; pay attention to his loving presence and his quiet, reassuring voice that he is alive and all will be well.

Church Finances and the Coronavirus – As anticipated, the absence of public Masses has caused a drop in our Church income. For the month of March, we collected $11,000 less than last year. Most of our Parish and School staff continue to work, mainly remotely. In accord with the recommendations of the Archdiocese and the government to soften the financial impact of the virus on our community and society, we have not laid off any employees and continue to pay the few employees who are now not able to work because of the new circumstances. Proceeding in this fashion has made us eligible to apply for help from the federal stimulus package. We have submitted our application and await the outcome. I know that many people are experiencing financial challenges at this time, so I do want to thank all those who have continued to contribute online, or by mailing in or dropping off your donations. The continued financial support for the Parish from all of you, according to your means, will be much appreciated and a big help to assuring the financial stability of our Parish.

May: the Month of Mary – As we approach the month of May, our thoughts go to Mary. She is the supreme example of someone who was conscious of the presence of the Lord in all the moments of her life. As his mother, she was ever attentive to him both in the quiet days at Nazareth and throughout his public ministry, right through his suffering, death and resurrection. The rosary is a particularly powerful prayer that helps us to take on the mind and heart of Mary, to make us attentive to the Lord in our lives. This time of crisis is a good time to pray to Mary to intercede for us, especially through the rosary. Being more attentive to Mary's presence with us through praying the rosary makes us more attentive to the Lord, in whom we place our faith and hope and to whom we turn for the healing, strength and peace we need.

Ordinations to the Priesthood – Normally, the priestly ordinations for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia take place on the third Saturday of May. The Archdiocese recently announced that the ordinations to Priesthood are now scheduled for June 20. The assignment changes for the priests this year will be announced the weekend of June 19-20 and the priests will report to their new assignments on July 8.

Online Evening Rosary – The Office of Evangelization of the Archdiocese is hosting online a rosary each evening at 8:00 pm to pray for the Lord's help at this difficult time. You can go to phillyevang.org to join in. Go to Events and click on Rosary Campaign and follow the instructions from there.

Church Teaching: The Sacrament of the Eucharist – Because of the inexhaustible richness of this sacrament, it is referred to by many names. For example, the Breaking of Bread, because Jesus used this rite, part of a Jewish meal, when as master of the table he blessed and distributed the bread, above all at the Last Supper. It is by this action that his disciples will recognize him after his Resurrection, and it is this expression that the first Christians will use to designate their Eucharistic assemblies; by doing so they signified that all who eat the one broken bread, Christ, enter into communion with him and form but one body in him. (from the Catechism of the Catholic Church)

A Little Humor – One of the nice things about getting older is you can hide your own Easter eggs and still have fun finding them.

Nightly Rosary to End Coronavirus

Each night at 8:00 PM, the Office for the New Evangelization is hosting an online Rosary Campaign for an end to the Coronavirus at phillyevang.org/rosary/. This Rosary will continue nightly until it's no longer needed!

Lankenau Ministry is suspended until further notice. On March 17, 2020, Archbishop Pérez stated, “In conjunction with directives already in force in hospitals and institutions, all visits to the sick with Holy Communion, including in private homes, by priests, deacons, and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion are suspended. In such instances, only priests will be available to celebrate the Sacraments for those in immediate danger of death.”

Spiritual Thought – The liturgy, through which the work of our redemption is accomplished, most of all in the divine sacrifice of the Eucharist, is the outstanding means whereby the faithful may express in their lives, and manifest to others, the mystery of Christ and the real nature of the true Church. (from the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of Vatican Council II)
