Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Many a joke has been told about the trial and tribulation that is part of most people's dealings with their state's Department of Motor Vehicles. My needs were twofold: buying a car from a private seller, and renewing my driver's license. Were I to tell you my whole story, including a suggestion from an official to "go have breakfast and we'll text you when it's near time for your spot in line to get serviced," I believe you might giggle a little and think how it resembled an episode of "Seinfeld."

My point in all this recall is to highlight the importance these days of carrying some proof on your person that you are who you claim to be. Today's feast celebrates the fact that at His baptism, Our Lord had no such need, for He received in spectacular fashion His authentication. God the Father said it in five words: "You are my beloved Son."

However, you and I cannot remain simple observers of a passing scene in this case. The fact that Jesus was baptized, and declared God's Son then and there brings to the fore a pair of religious obligations we all have inherited as a result of our own baptism.

First is that we take our baptism very seriously, far from being just a happy memory caught by a collection of posed pictures of us as infants at the font. Second, we must take seriously every facet of Christ's teaching in making decisions for action practically every day.

Most Catholic adults only confront the importance of their baptism when they visit the parish office seeking permission to be a godparent; or arranging a wedding; or setting up the baptism of their own new child.

The significance of this sacrament is the fact that it is the "gatekeeper" for the other six. It begins our full commitment to Christ, albeit made through our parents and godparents, waiting for us to make it on our own. This automatically means that we are called to full participation in the life of the Church He founded, and identified Himself with as its Head.

What are some aspects of our commitment? For one, we may have to decide on any given Sunday, do I go to Mass, or junior's soccer game? Do I opt for more sleep because I've had a hard week at work? Do I attend my daughter's Confirmation class on Saturday or go instead to a ballet performance? Basic items but real cases. And those are only the beginning.

Our baptism gave us our permanent identity and it involves far more than a cleansing from original sin. I leave it up to you to research the whole beautiful treatment of the sacrament given by the Church from her earliest days. Refresh your earlier learning by finding online the beautiful truths presented by the official Church catechism.

Meanwhile, here is rich food for thought from C.S. Lewis, one of the best exponents of the Christian faith: "I believe in Christianity as I believe that the sun has risen. Not only because I see it, but because by it I see everything else."

God love you and give you His peace.

Parish Theme for 2020-2021

Rejoice in Hope; Endure in Affliction; Persevere in Prayer

From the Pastor

Baptism of the Lord – Today we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. At his baptism of Jesus in the Jordan River, the voice of God the Father proclaimed from the heavens, “This is my beloved Son on whom my favor rests.” And the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus in the form of a dove. These dramatic occurrences made clear that Jesus was the Son of God sent to reveal God to us and bring us God’s saving grace by sharing his life with us. The Baptism of the Lord helps us to understand our own baptism. Through baptism we become in Christ adopted sons of the Father. We are filled with the life of Christ and the power of the Holy Spirit. After his baptism the Lord began his public ministry of healing and teaching and bringing the love of God to all. As we celebrate the baptism of the Lord, we rejoice in our own baptism. We are mindful that we share in divine life and are called to let the light of God’s goodness shine through our words and deeds. May we be true to the astounding gift of our baptism by faithfully following our Lord and proclaiming his kingdom of justice, love and peace.

Work on Sanctuary Floor – The repair of the marble floor in the sanctuary will begin this week. After the repairs are done this week, the plan is for the floor to be polished next week. We are looking forward to the completion of this work. We will be able to appreciate better and enjoy the beauty of our sanctuary as a fitting setting for the worship of God and the reception of his bountiful grace, especially through the celebration of the Eucharist.

Father Cossavella – Father Anthony Cossavella is now residing at St. Margaret rectory for a time. He is a friend of mine and is in between assignments. He will be ordained forty years this year, and he is spending some time here for rest and relaxation before receiving his next assignment.

Pastoral Council - The Council will meet by Zoom on Thursday, January 14 at 7:00 pm.

Liturgy Committee – This Committee will be meeting by Zoom on Tuesday, January 19 at 6:00 pm

Christmas Collection – Many thanks for your great generosity at Christmas! We have collected almost $80,000. Last year’s total was $61,000, so we surpassed that by quite a bit. We really needed the help in this year of the pandemic and I appreciate your rising to the occasion. May God bless you all for your faithful support of our Parish.

Saint Charles Seminary Appeal – it is not too late to support the 2020 Seminary Appeal, which began in November. You can make your donation in the envelope you received at home or donate at stcharlesseminaryappeal.org. Also, extra envelopes are available in the vestibule of Church. For 2019, 99 of our households donated a total of $23,913. For 2020, thus far, 92 households have donated a total of $25,476. Once again, thank you for your generosity to the 2020 collection, for already surpassing the 2019 total.

Parish Theme for 2020-2021 (Rejoice in hope; endure in affliction; persevere in prayer.) – Today’s Feast of the Baptism of the Lord marks the end of the Christmas Season and the beginning of Ordinary Time. All those who came to worship the Christ child were renewed in hope. The presence of the Lord among us lifted their spirits and helped them to see that the love of God is stronger than any difficulties and able to overcome any darkness. We have worshipped the Lord in a special way this Christmas Season and now we go forward with great hope and a deeper love for Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. We place our trust in him.

Church Teaching: Sunday Mass – The dies Domini (day of the Lord) is also the dies Ecclesiae (day of the Church). This is why on the pastoral level the community aspect of the Sunday celebration should be particularly stressed. As I have noted elsewhere, among the many activities of a parish, “none is as vital or as community-forming as the Sunday celebration of the Lord’s Day and his Eucharist.” Mindful of this, the Second Vatican Council recalled that efforts must be made to ensure that there is “within the parish, a lively sense of community, in the first place through the community celebration of Sunday Mass.” (from the Apostolic Letter “Keeping the Lord’s Day Holy” by Saint John Paul II)

Spiritual Thought – All life demands struggle. Those who have everything given to them become lazy, selfish and insensitive to the real values of life. The very striving and hard work that we so constantly try to avoid is the major building block in the person we are today. (Saint Paul VI)

Dear St. Margaret Church Congregation,

Even during the pandemic, there is much to celebrate. Two weeks ago, a family moved into their new apartment. This single mom of three very rambunctious girls worked together with them to pack their belongings to move into their new home just a few blocks away from the IHN-ML Day Center. As the children helped carry things down the Day Center's stairs you could hear them asking, "Mommy is today moving day?" "Are we going to our new house?" "Yay!"

On behalf of the board of directors of Interfaith Hospitality Network, and especially on behalf of the families we serve, thank you for your support and generous donation of $585.00, Thanksgiving collection. This funding comes at a time of great need and will make a significant impact on the lives of the families we serve. The recently graduated mom is happy to know she still has people who care about her and the girls as she takes the next step in her journey.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Fulfilling the Church's mission of mercy and the gospel call to love others as we love God, The Catholic Relief Services (CRS) collection funds Catholic agencies that work for the benefit of our brothers and sisters around the world. In providing humanitarian aid, resettling displaced individuals and families, and advocating on behalf of victims of atrocities such as human trafficking, the organizations supported by the CRS collection act from their belief that every individual is an equal heir of Christ's love and care.

The annual Catholic Relief Services collection challenges American Catholics to put their faith into action and to see "Jesus in disguise" in the faces of the poor, and to support ongoing efforts to respond to their needs. The funds collected support vital Catholic programs that share in the Catholic mission of promoting the sacredness of human life. A small amount from the collection is retained by the Archdiocese to help cover local efforts to promote the collection.

The collection will be taken up in the parishes of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia the weekend of January 16 and 17, 2021. The American Catholic community, and the Archdiocese of Philadelphia in particular, have always responded very generously to this annual collection.

I am grateful to you for your compassionate response. May you be blessed for your faithfulness in living the Gospel and recognizing Jesus in those in need.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia
