Background on the Gospel Reading

In today's Gospel we read about how Jesus overturned the tables of the merchants and the moneychangers in the Temple at Jerusalem. In order to understand the relevance of Jesus' action, we must learn more about the activities that were going on in the temple area. Worship at the Temple in Jerusalem included animal sacrifice, and merchants sold animals to worshipers. Moneychangers exchanged Roman coins, which bore the image of the Roman emperor, for the temple coins that were needed to pay the temple tax.

Jesus' action at the Temple in Jerusalem is recorded in all four Gospels and is often understood to be among the events that led to Jesus' arrest and Crucifixion. The Gospel of John, however, places this event much earlier in Jesus' public ministry than do the Synoptic Gospels. In John's Gospel this event occurs at the very beginning of Jesus' ministry, after his first miracle at the wedding feast at Cana.

We must read the Gospel of John carefully, especially in its presentation of Jesus' relationship to Judaism. The Gospel of John tends to reflect greater tension and animosity between Jesus and the Jewish authorities than the Synoptic Gospels. The Gospel of John was the last of the four Gospels to be written, and its narrative reflects the growing divide between the Jewish community and the early Christian community. Thus, greater emphasis on the distinction between Christianity and Judaism is found in John's Gospel.

Reflecting upon the destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem (A.D. 70), John recalls Jesus' cleansing of the Temple and uses that story to interpret this later event. John explains to his audience, an early Christian community, that temple worship would no longer be necessary because it was surpassed in the passion, death, and Resurrection of Jesus. With greater frequency than the other Evangelists, John intersperses post-Resurrection reflections of this Christian community in his narrative.

After clearing the Temple of the merchants and the moneychangers, John's Gospel tells us that the people asked for a sign of Jesus' authority to do such an audacious act. In response, Jesus predicted his death and Resurrection. Throughout John's Gospel, the language of signs is distinctive. Jesus' miracles are called signs, and the people look to these signs for proof of his authority. Here we learn that the sign par excellence will be Jesus' passion, death, and Resurrection.

During Lent we reflect upon the meaning of this sign for us and for our world. We might take this opportunity to consider the quality of our prayer and worship. In our prayers we seek to deepen our relationship with the person of Christ. In our worship with the community, we gather to experience anew the passion, death, and Resurrection of Jesus and its significance in our lives. Christ promises to be present with us when we gather for prayer.

Parish Theme for 2020-2021

Rejoice in Hope; Endure in Affliction; Persevere in Prayer

From the Pastor

Consecration to St. Joseph – Pope Francis has designated the year from Dec. 8, 2020 to December 8, 2021 as the Year of St. Joseph. We will be giving you the opportunity to make a Consecration to St. Joseph on May 1. The consecration requires thirty-three days of prayerful preparation. Books are available in the vestibule of Church to guide you through this process of consecration. It will require about 20 minutes of your time each day from March 30 to May 1. Each day you will offer prayers and reflect on readings focused on St. Joseph. I hope you plan to be part of this consecration in order to receive its special blessings and the spiritual growth it brings. All of the prayers can be said individually on your own, even the consecration to St. Joseph on May 1. In order to give you the opportunity to share with others who will be making the consecration, we will have meetings available on Zoom each Wednesday evening in April at 7:00pm. You can contact Nicole at faith@saintmarg.org or at 610-664-3770 to sign on to obtain the Zoom link. Also, if you wish, you can join us on Saturday, May 1 at the 8:00 am Mass, during which we will make the consecration to St. Joseph together as a community. Pick up one of the books in the vestibule and be part of the consecration to this great saint who had such a special relationship with the Lord Jesus and can bring us closer to him.

Novena to St. Joseph – To celebrate the Year of St. Joseph, you are encouraged to make a novena of prayer for his intercession, beginning on March 19, the Solemnity of St. Joseph, the Spouse of Mary, and then on the nineteenth of every month thereafter through November 19, 2021. Copies of the prayers to be offered are on the tables in the vestibule. Please take a copy and join in praying this Novena each month. Our unity with St. Joseph will unite us more closely to Jesus and bring us many spiritual blessings.

Liturgy Committee – The Liturgy Committee will meet on Tuesday evening March 9 at 6:00 pm by Zoom.

Twenty-Four Hours for the Lord – Pope Francis has once again proclaimed a Lenten weekend, March 12-13, as a time of special Lenten prayer and devotion. On Friday, March 12, we will have our Stations of the Cross Devotion at 7:00 pm. On Saturday, March 13, we will have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from after the 8:00 am Mass until 12 noon. Confessions will be heard from 11:00 am to 12 noon. Lent calls us to a renewed commitment to prayer as a means of turning to the Lord with all our hearts to receive the power of his mercy, strength and comfort. Come and spend some time in prayer with the Lord.

Lenten Discussion on Homelessness on Tuesday, March 23 – Lent is a time of Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving. What better time to address Homelessness? Please join us on Tuesday, March 23 at 8:00 pm for a zoom discussion of Rev. Chaz Howard's new book, "The Bottom: a Theopoetic of the Streets." It is available at the rectory for $20 ($5 of which will be donated to St. Margaret's), the Narberth Bookshop, and online on Amazon. Contact Nicole at faith@saintmarg.org to register for the Zoom link.

Lenten Morning of Recollection – We invite you to a Lenten Morning of Recollection in Church on Saturday, March 20. Join us for the 8:00 am Mass, followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament until 11:00 am. Father Sean Loomis, the Chaplain for the Deaf Apostolate in the Archdiocese and Parochial Vicar at Annunciation B.V.M. Church in Havertown, will speak at 9:00 am on the obedience of Christ to the Father and the freedom that obedience brings. Confessions will be heard from 10:00 – 10:45 am, and then we will conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The talk by Fr. Loomis will be livestreamed.

Catholic Charities Appeal 2021 - This year's Appeal is underway. Lent is a particularly good time to practice almsgiving and give to charities. The Catholic Charities Appeal helps the Archdiocese to serve many needy people in our area. Your generosity provides for elderly priests, children with disabilities, the undernourished, and many others who need help. Please be generous to this very important Appeal. You can donate at catholiccharitiesappeal.org.

Parish Theme for This Year - (Rejoice in hope; endure in affliction; persevere in prayer.) – The call of Lent is to take up our cross and follow Jesus. To take up the cross means to accept willingly our sufferings as a means to being united with Jesus in his Passion and joining with him in offering our lives to the Father for the salvation of the world. We can endure in affliction because we know our sufferings are not in vain. The Lord uses them in his plan of salvation for us and for others.

Church Teaching: The Mass as an Easter Banquet – The communal character of the eucharist emerges in a special way when it is seen as the Easter banquet in which Christ himself becomes our nourishment. In fact, for this purpose Christ entrusted to the church this sacrifice: so that the faithful might share in it, both spiritually, in faith and charity, and sacramentally, in the banquet of holy communion. Sharing in the Lord's Supper is always communion with Christ, who offers himself for us in the sacrifice to the Father. (from the Apostolic Letter "Keeping the Lord's Day Holy" by Saint John Paul II)

FAST AND ABSTINENCE AND OTHER ACTS OF PENANCE FOR LENT

The Bishops of the United States prescribe, as minimal obligation, that all persons who are fourteen years of age and older are bound to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday, February 17, 2021, on all the Fridays of Lent and Good Friday (with the exception of Friday, March 19th, The Solemnity of St. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary). Further, all persons eighteen years of age and older, up to and including their fifty-ninth birthday, are bound to fast by limiting themselves to a single full meal on Ash Wednesday and on Good Friday, while the other two meals on those days are to be light.

All the faithful are encouraged, when possible, to participate at Mass and to receive the Holy Eucharist daily, to celebrate frequently the Sacrament of Penance, to undertake spiritual reading, especially the study of the Sacred Scriptures, and to participate in parish Lenten devotions as well as Lenten education programs. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is especially recommended.

All are encouraged to participate in Operation Rice Bowl which has aided countless hungry persons here in the Archdiocese as well as throughout our nation and our world.

A Little Humor – A man entered the office of a dentist for the first time. When he saw a certificate on the wall bearing the dentist’s full name, he suddenly remembered he had a high school classmate by the same name and wondered if it was the same person. When he saw the dentist, he almost put aside the thought. The dentist looked so old to him he thought this surely could not be his classmate. But the patient asked the dentist what high school he attended and when the dentist’s reply indicated it was the same high school as the patient, the patient replied, “I knew you from high school.” The dentist looked at him real closely and asked, “What subject did you teach?”

St. John’s Hospice Casserole Program PAUSED

The casserole program is currently on hold due to an accident on the afternoon of January 13, affecting the truck that they use for pick-ups. They will let us know when they are able to resume picking up casseroles.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon, our Archdiocese will take up the national Collection for the Church in Latin America. The collection helps to share the faith in regions like the mountainous Andahuaylas Province of Peru, where most of the people in the Talavera District speak Quechua. To better minister to these people, the parish of Santiago Apostol led a project to prepare Quechua-language audiovisual materials about evangelization and Sacred Scripture. The parish also created digital materials and furnished a room to serve as a library to hold these and other resources.

Support from the Collection for the Church in Latin America helped cover the necessary costs of the project—allowing the first series of materials to be created in June 2018.

By supporting this collection, you help share the faith more fully with underserved indigenous peoples in remote areas of Latin America.

Our Archdiocese will take up this Collection the weekend of March 13 and 14, 2021. Please be generous in this Collection and take this opportunity to share your faith with the youth of Latin America and the Caribbean. Your support will truly make a difference. Thank you and God bless you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Nelson J. Pérez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

Spiritual Thought – Our own evil inclinations are far more dangerous than any external enemies. (St. Ambrose)

FOOD COLLECTION WEEKEND!

They provide food for 40 Food Cupboards throughout the Philadelphia area. All items should be brought to the school Cafeteria next weekend. Thank you for your generous support of this program.
